

Inhalt

*THE PRE-MODERN ORIGINS OF WESTERN HISTORICAL THOUGHT: Historiography in Ancient Israel; John Van Seters - Historical Thought in Ancient Greece; Philip A. Stadter - Historical Thought in Ancient Rome; J. E. Lendon - Historical Thought in Medieval Europe; Gabrielle M. Spiegel - Historical Thought in the Renaissance; Paula Findlen

THE SHAPING OF MODERN WESTERN HISTORICAL THOUGHT: Historical Thought in the Era of the Enlightenment; Johnson Kent Wright - German Historical Thought in the Age of Herder, Kant, and Hegel; Harold Mah - German Historical Writing from Ranke to Weber: The Primacy of Politics; Harry Liebersohn - National History in the Age of Michelet, Macaulay, and Bancroft; Thomas N. Baker - Marxism and Historical Thought; Walter L. Adamson

Patterns in Twentieth-Century Western Historical Thought: The Professionalization of Historical Studies and the Guiding Assumptions of Modern Historical Thought; Georg G. Iggers - The History of Armed Power; Peter Paret - Total History and Microhistory: The French and Italian Paradigms; David A. Bell - Anthropology and the History of Culture; William M. Reddy - The History of Science, Or, an Oxymoronic Theory of Relativistic Objectivity; Ken Alder - Language, Literary Studies, and Historical Thought; Susan A. Crane - Psychology, Psychoanalysis, and Historical Thought; Lynn Hunt - Redefining Historical Identities: Sexuality, Gender, and the Self; Carolyn J. Dean - Historicizing Natural Environments: The Deep Roots of Environmental History; Andrew C. Isenberg

Challenges to the Boundaries of Western Historical Thought: The New World History; Jerry H. Bentley - Postcolonial History; Prasenjit Duara - The Multicultural History of Nations; Donna R. Gabaccia - New Technologies and Historical Knowledge; James M. Murray - The Visual Media and Historical Knowledge; Robert A. Rosenstone