

A
MAP HISTORY
OF AUSTRALIA

Ian Wynd and Joyce Wood

MELBOURNE
OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS
OXFORD WELLINGTON NEW YORK

CONTENTS

Introduction

DISCOVERING AUSTRALIA

1. The Known World in 1400 A.D.
2. The Portuguese Explorers
3. Spanish Expansion in the Americas
- 4a. Ferdinand Magellan
- 4b. The Known World in 1600 A.D.
5. The Spanish Explorers
6. The Dutch Seamen
7. Abel Tasman
8. William Dampier
9. James Cook

OPENING UP AUSTRALIA

10. The First Settlement
11. The Transportation of Convicts
12. George Bass and Matthew Flinders
13. Van Diemen's Land
14. New South Wales
15. South-east Australia: 1815-24
16. South-east Australia: 1827-36
17. Moreton Bay
18. Swan River
19. The Port Phillip District
20. South Australia
21. Angus McMillan and Paul Strzelecki
22. Edward John Eyre
23. Charles Sturt
24. Ludwig Leichhardt
25. Thomas Mitchell and Edmund Kennedy
26. Augustus Gregory
27. John McDouall Stuart and Burke and Wills
28. John and Alexander Forrest
29. Peter Warburton and Ernest Giles

DEVELOPING AUSTRALIA

30. Sheep and Wool
31. Squatting

DEVELOPING AUSTRALIA (Cont'd)

32. Wheat
33. Transport
34. Gold
35. Free Selection
36. Closer Settlement
37. The Economic Situation before 1900
38. Growth of the Cities
39. Secondary Industry
40. Overseas Trade

POPULATING AUSTRALIA

41. The Aborigines
42. The Earlier Immigrants
43. The Post-War Immigrants
44. The Present Population
45. 'White Australia'

GOVERNING AUSTRALIA

46. Self-government
47. The Steps to Federation
48. The Federal Government
49. State Government
50. Local Government
51. Trade Unions and the Labor Party

AUSTRALIA OVERSEAS

52. Papua New Guinea
53. East and South-East Asia
54. Antarctica
55. The First World War
56. The Second World War: Europe
57. Japanese Expansion
58. The Second World War: the Pacific
59. The S.P.C. and the 'Colombo Plan'
60. The ANZUS Treaty