

ATLAS OF THE ARAB WORLD

Compiled by M W Dempsey B A

with an Introduction by John Bulloch
Diplomatic Correspondent of The Daily Telegraph
— specialist in Middle East and African Affairs

Facts On File Publications

460 Park Avenue South
New York, N.Y. 10016

Contents

Introduction

The Arab Nations	1
The Shape of the Land	2
Temperature and Insolation	3
Winds and Rainfall	4
Natural Vegetation	5
Population	6
Health and Medical Care	7
Food and Nutrition	8
Literacy and Learning	9
Standard of Living	10
Living Standards Compared	11
Employment	12
Land Use	13
Agriculture	14
Livestock	15
The Balance of Farming	16
Mineral Wealth	17
Oil Production	18
The Movement of Oil	19
Energy Consumption	20
Industry and Manufacturing	21
Volume of Trade	22
Trading Partners	23
National Wealth	24
Wealth of the Arab World	25
Development of the Arab World	26
By Road and Rail	27
By Sea and Air	28
The Media	29
Government and Politics	30
Military Expenditure	31
Military Might	32
Comparitive Military Strength	33
Cradles of Civilization	34
The Classical Influence	35
The Expansion of Islam	36
The Arab World in Eclipse	37
National Resurgence	38

Country by country gazetteer

Notes to the maps