

THE NEW ATLAS OF WORLD HISTORY
Global Events at a Glance

JOHN HAYWOOD

Princeton University Press
Princeton and Oxford

Contents

6	How to Use this Book
8	Introduction: World History in Overview
10	Maps and Timelines
217	A to Z of Peoples, Nations and Cultures
233	Further Reading
235	Sources of Data
235	Acknowledgments
236	Sources of Illustrations
238	Reference Map
240	Index
10		6,000,000– 100,000 YEARS AGO	The origins and distribution of early human species
14		100,000– 11,000 YEARS AGO	The spread of modern humans during the Ice Age
18		6000 BC	After the ice: human adaptations to a warmer world and the beginning of agriculture
22		4000 BC	The spread of farming societies in the Old World
26		2000 BC	Birth of the first civilizations in Sumer and Egypt; early farming societies in the New World
30		1300 BC	The Bronze Age empires of Egypt, the Mediterranean, Mesopotamia and China
34		1000 BC	The Aegean and Mesopotamian Dark Ages; rise of the Zhou in China
38		800 BC	Dominant Assyria and expansionist Zhou; colonizing Phoenicians
42		500 BC	Assyria, Babylon and the rise of Persia; fall of the Zhou kingdom
46		323 BC	Alexander the Great, Carthage and China's Warring States period
50		200 BC	The unification of China, break-up of Alexander's empire and the rise of Rome
54		1 BC	China's Han dynasty empire at its greatest extent
58		AD 200	The Roman and Kushan empires reach their greatest extents; decline of the Han empire
62		400	Roman empire and China divided; the rise of Sasanian Persia and Gupta India; the Classic Maya civilization
66		500	The fall of Rome and the rise of the first empires of the Andes
70		650	The Islamic era begins; China's Tang dynasty empire reaches its peak; destruction of Teotihuacán The spread of Hinduism, Buddhism, Zoroastrianism, Judaism, Christianity and Islam to AD 650
76		712	The great Arab conquests reach the Atlantic and the Indus
80		800	The Abbasid caliphate, the Carolingian empire and early imperial Japan

84	907	Demise of the Tang and the Maya city states; the age of the Vikings	148	1824	The fall of the Spanish–American empire
88	1000	Fall of the Abbasids; Viking raids in Europe; unification of Korea	152	1848	Nationalism and the rise of the nation states; revolutions break out in Europe
92	1100	The Turkish conquest of the Middle East; the First Crusade; the first towns in North America	156	1861	The US Civil War; rebellions and social change in Japan and China
96	1206	Chinggis Khan unites the Mongol tribes; India comes under Muslim dominion; fall of the Toltecs	160	1871	New borders drawn in America and Europe
100	1300	Domination and fragmentation of the Mongol empire; the rise of Mali and Great Zimbabwe in Africa	164	1900	The European colonial empires dominate the world
104	1400	Ming dynasty China; Timur the Lame; the growth of Ottoman power			Migrations in the 19th century: Europe a great exporter of population
		Patterns of world trade on the eve of European expansion
110	1492	The world on the brink of European expansion; the Aztec and Inca empires at their peak	170	1912	European colonial expansion; the end of imperial China; the rise of Japan
		The spread of the world's major writing systems to 1492	172	1914	The outbreak of the First World War in Europe
116	1530	Spain and Portugal divide the world between them; the Ottoman empire at its peak; Mughal conquests in India	176	1917	The First World War continues; the Russian Revolution
120	1600	Continued Spanish conquest of the Americas; the Mughal empire at its peak	180	1923	The end of the First World War and the Treaty of Versailles
		The spread of world religions to 1600 – Christianity is the first global religion	184	1938	The world in the shadow of the great dictators; new government in China
126	1650	France becomes the dominant European power; the Manchu conquest of China	188	1942	The maximum extent of Axis advance in the Second World War
130	1715	The Treaty of Utrecht: Britain emerges as a major European power; decline of the Ottoman and Mughal empires	192	1945	The end of the Second World War in Europe and the Asia–Pacific region
134	1763	Britain becomes Europe's leading colonial power; Qing empire at its peak	196	1950	The Cold War and the rise of anti-colonialism and communism in Asia
		World trade on the eve of the Industrial Revolution: British dominance of the global trade network; Atlantic slave trade at its peak	200	1962	The winds of change: the European retreat from Africa
140	1783	Britain recognizes the independence of the USA	204	1975	The world at the height of the Cold War
144	1812	France bids for European dominance; the establishment of British colonies in Australia	208	1991	The fall of the Iron Curtain and the break-up of the USSR
			212	2010	The shifting balance of global power