

This revised and expanded 3rd edition of the Switzerland Business & Investment Handbook covers the latest information and all key aspects of doing business, investing and living in Switzerland. It is a unique reference manual featuring over 30 separate chapters, each of them concise and to the point, providing the information that really matters. Besides an introduction to Switzerland's historical, political, social and economic framework, the book covers the Swiss legal system, company and contract law, competition law, intellectual property law, taxation of personal income and investments, corporate taxation, VAT, international tax aspects, real estate, residence, the social security and pension system, annuities and life insurance, private banking, financial market regulation and other important subjects. Overview tables, useful check lists, portraits of the Swiss cantons, a comprehensive facts-and-figures section as well as a clearly organized address section make the handbook user-friendly and practice-oriented.

The book is aimed at:

- Investors and entrepreneurs interested in investing and doing business in Switzerland
- Company executives who wish to have a clear overview of the legal, tax and economic framework in Switzerland
- International tax and legal advisors; business consultants and fiduciaries
- English-speakers living, working and doing business in Switzerland

Christian H. Kälin, the editor of the handbook and also one of its co-authors, is a well-known international lawyer and partner at Henley & Partners, Zurich. The other authors include Switzerland specialist Professor Clive Church of the University of Kent, Barbara Beck of The Economist, Stefan Kuhn of KPMG, Dr Mathias Bopp and Dr Niklaus Honauer of PricewaterhouseCoopers, Xavier Oberson, a lawyer and professor of tax law in Geneva, Dr Eric Scheidegger, Head of the Promotion Activities Directorate in the State Secretariat for Economic Affairs, Professor Jean-Baptiste Zufferey, Member of the Board of Directors of the Swiss Financial Market Supervisory Authority (FINMA), and other leading specialists in their field.

swissnetwork.com – the largest portal for Swiss business and investment

The website features further information about the topics covered in this book. The pool of experts offers frequent updates and opinions and enables the user to make direct contact with professionals. Besides the high quality content overviews, directories and links make this the most important website for business, investment and living in Switzerland.