

Herausgegeben im Auftrag der Rechtswissenschaftlichen Fakultät
der Universität Zürich von S.K. Alexander, P. Breitschmid, A. Bächler,
H.C. von der Crone, A. Heinemann, H. Heiss, R.M. Hilty, C. Huguenin, D. Jakob,
P. Nobel, W. Portmann, A.K. Schnyder, R. Sethe, H.U. Vogt, R.H. Weber

Catherine Chammartin

State-owned Banks

A Comparative Analysis of State-owned Banks in China and in Switzerland

Table of Contents

Acknowledgments	V
Table of Contents	VIII
Chinese and Swiss Financial Institutions	XV
List of Chinese Financial Institutions	XV
List of Swiss Financial Institutions	XXVII
List of Abbreviations	XIX
References	XXV
List of Legal Sources	LV
Chinese Laws and Legal Regulations	LV
Swiss Laws and Legal Regulations	LXIII
List of Figures	LXIX
Part One: Introduction	1
§ 1. Objective	1
§ 2. Research Approach	2
Part Two: Brief History of the Banking System in China	5
§ 1. The Planned System, 1948–1978	5
§ 2. Initial Reforms, 1979–1985	8
§ 3. The Second Stage, 1986–1992	10
§ 4. The Third Stage, 1993–1997	11
I. Central Banking	11
II. Expansion and Consolidation of the Banking Sector	12
III. Policy Banking	13
IV. Commercial Banking and Debt Crisis	14
§ 5. The Fourth Stage, 1998–2001	16
I. Non-Performing Loans	16
II. Banking Supervision	19
§ 6. From 2002 to Present	20
I. China's WTO Accession	20
II. Creation of the China Banking Regulatory Commission	21

III. Reform of State-Owned Banks	22
IV. China and the Global Financial Crisis	23
Part Three: Brief History of the Banking System in Switzerland	25
§ 1. Development of the Banking Sector Before 1900	25
§ 2. Swiss National Bank	26
§ 3. Adoption of the Banking Law	27
§ 4. Banking Crisis of the 1990s	27
§ 5. Switzerland's Banking System and the Global Financial Crisis	29
Part Four: Study Object	31
§ 1. Legal Definition of Banks	31
I. Commercial Banks under Chinese Law	31
II. Commercial Banks under Swiss Law	32
III. Comparison	34
§ 2. Further Banking Activities	34
I. Universal Banking in Switzerland	35
II. Financial Segregation in China	35
§ 3. Main Laws and Regulations	38
I. In China	38
II. In Switzerland	39
§ 4. Chinese Banking Institutions	40
I. Policy Banks	42
II. State-Owned Commercial Banks	42
III. Joint-Stock Commercial Banks	44
IV. City Commercial Banks	45
V. Other Banking Institutions	46
VI. Non-Bank Financial Institutions	47
VII. Postal Savings Institutions	47
VIII. Foreign Banks	48
IX. Conclusion	49

§ 5. Swiss Banking Institutions	49
I. Cantonal Banks	50
II. Large Banks	52
III. Regional Banks and Savings Banks	53
IV. Raiffeisen Banks	53
V. Other Banks	53
VI. Branches of Foreign Banks	53
VII. Private Bankers	54
VIII. Conclusion	54
Part Five: Constitutional Legitimacy of State Banks	55
§ 1. China's Economic Constitution	55
I. Forms of Ownership	55
II. Socialist Market Economy	59
A. From Planned Economy to Socialist Market Economy	59
B. How Far Across the River?	62
§ 2. Conclusion	63
§ 3. Switzerland's Economic Constitution	63
I. Principle of Economic Freedom	63
II. Economic Activity by the State	65
III. The State as Banker	66
§ 4. Conclusion	68
Part Six: Government Ownership of Banks	69
§ 1. Introduction	69
I. Reasons for State Ownership of the Banking System	79
A. Pursuit of Political and Social Objectives	79
B. Ensuring Credit Allocation to Underserved Groups	81
C. Informational Asymmetry	81
D. Financial Crises	82
E. Historical Reasons for State-Owned Banks in China and in Switzerland	83
II. Reasons Against State Ownership of the Banking System	84
A. Weak or Adverse Incentives	84
B. Inadequate Monitoring	85
C. Soft Budget Constraints	86
D. Pursuit of Noneconomic Objectives	87
III. Empirical Evidence	89
A. In General	89

B. The Banking System in Particular	91
IV. Conclusion	94
§ 2. State-Ownership of the Banking System	94
I. Organization of State-Owned Enterprises	94
II. Government Ownership in China Today	98
III. Legal Forms of Chinese Banks	98
A. Incorporated Banks	98
B. Independent Legal Entities	100
IV. Bank Entry Requirements	102
A. Requirements Regarding a Commercial Bank's Shareholding	105
B. Joint Stock Commercial Banks' Shareholders	106
C. City Commercial Banks' Shareholders	109
V. Extent of Government Ownership	109
VI. Government Entities Holding Stakes in Chinese Banks	120
VII. Corporatization, But no Privatization	123
VIII. Government Ownership in Switzerland Today	124
IX. Legal Forms of Swiss Banks	125
A. In General	125
B. Of Cantonal Banks in Particular	126
X. Bank Entry Requirements	129
XI. Requirements Regarding a Bank's Shareholder	130
XII. Extent of Government Ownership	132
A. Major Banks	132
B. Cantonal Banks	133
XIII. Private Ownership the Rule, State Ownership the Exception	136
Part Seven: Public Mandate of State Banks	141
§ 1. Introduction	141
§ 2. Public Mandate of Banks in China	141
I. Public Mandate of Policy Banks	141
II. Public Mandate of Commercial Banks	144
A. Legal Provisions	144
B. How Banks Understand Their Role	146
1. Value Bank	147
2. Development Bank	147
3. Community Bank	149
4. Model Employer Bank	150
5. Integrity Bank	151
C. Specification of the Public Mandate Regarding Credit Allocation	152
1. Real Estate	154

2. Rural Financial Services	156
3. Small Business Financing	157
4. Green Credit	158
5. Reconstruction Efforts	160
6. Pro-Consumption and Pro-Growth Policy	161
7. Merger and Acquisition Loans	162
8. Student Loans	163
D. Chinese Banks To a Large Extent Government's Foot Soldiers	163
§ 3. Public Mandate of Banks in Switzerland	164
I. Business Object and Corporate Social Responsibility of Major Banks	164
II. Public Mandate of Cantonal Banks	167
A. Realize a Profit	168
B. Promote the Economic and Social Development of the Canton	168
C. Ensure Sufficient Banking Services	169
D. Support the Canton in the Performance of its Tasks	170
E. Other Public Mandates	170
III. Fading of Cantonal Banks' Public Mandate	170
Part Eight: Restructuring and Liquidation of State-Owned Banks	173
§ 1. Introduction	173
§ 2. Bank Restructuring and Liquidation in China	174
I. Implicit State Guarantee	174
II. Legal Framework for Dealing with Problem Banks	177
A. Handling Unexpected Events	177
B. Early Intervention	178
C. Takeover and Reorganization	180
D. Suspension for Internal Rectification	182
E. Bank Closure	184
1. Grounds for Bank Closure	185
2. Liquidation Procedure	186
F. Bankruptcy	189
1. Bankruptcy Triggers	190
2. Opening of Bankruptcy Proceedings	191
3. Liquidation Team	191
4. Distribution Order	192
5. Reorganization	193
III. Shareholders' Duties when the Bank is in Financial Difficulties	194
IV. Conclusion	195
§ 3. Bank Restructuring and Liquidation in Switzerland	197
I. Explicit State Guarantee for Cantonal Banks	199
II. Conclusion	205

Part Nine: Organization of State-Owned Banks	207
§ 1. Basic Corporate Governance Models	208
§ 2. Organization of State-Owned Banks in China	208
I. Corporate Governance of Chinese Policy Banks	208
A. Board of Supervisors	209
B. Senior Management	211
C. EXIM Bank's Board of Directors	211
II. Corporate Governance of Chinese Commercial Banks	212
A. Corporate Governance Rules in the Commercial Banking Law	212
B. Corporate Governance Framework under the Company Law	213
1. JSCLL Shareholders' Meeting	213
2. JSCLL's Board of Directors	215
3. JSCLL's Board of Supervisors	216
4. JSCLL's Senior Management	217
C. Shareholding Commercial Banks' Corporate Governance Guideline	217
1. Shareholders and Shareholders' Meeting	218
2. Directors and Board of Directors	219
3. Board of Directors' Committees	222
4. Supervisors and Board of Supervisors	223
5. Board of Supervisors' Committees	225
6. Senior Management	225
D. Corporate Governance of State-Owned Banks	226
1. Shareholders' Meeting	227
2. Directors and Board of Directors	227
3. Supervisors and Board of Supervisors	228
4. Senior Management	228
E. Corporate Governance of Listed Commercial Banks	228
F. Conclusion	228
III. Three Old Committees	229
A. Party Committee	229
B. Workers' Congress	230
C. Labor Union Committee	231
D. Coexistence of the Three New and the Three Old Committees	231
E. Conclusion	233
§ 3. Fitness and Propriety of Bankers at State-Owned Banks in China	235
I. Supervisors and Senior Managers at Chinese Policy Banks	235
A. Requirements for Supervisors	235
B. Requirements for Senior Managers	236
II. Supervisors, Directors and Senior Managers in Chinese Commercial Banks	238
A. Company Law Requirements for Directors, Supervisors and Senior Managers	239
B. Common Requirements for Board Directors and Senior Managers	240
C. Common Requirements for Directors and Supervisors	242
D. Requirements for Directors	243
E. Requirements for Supervisors	244

F. Requirements for Independent Directors and Supervisors	244
G. Requirements for Senior Managers	245
H. Conclusion	247
§ 4. Organization of State-Owned Banks in Switzerland	248
I. Federal Banking Law Requirements on a Bank's Organization	248
II. Cantonal Banks' Organization	251
III. Cantonal Banks as Public Law Institutions	252
IV. Cantonal Banks Organized as Special Law Corporations	257
V. Fitness and Propriety Of Cantonal Bank Directors and Managers	261
A. Federal Banking Law Requirements	261
B. Cantonal Bank Acts' Requirements	262
VI. Conclusion	267
Part Ten: Summary	269