
Mt. McKINLEY:

The Pioneer Climbs

BY TERRIS MOORE

Published by University of Alaska Press
Distributed by University of Washington Press

Mt. McKinley . . .
The Pioneer Climbs

Contents

Publisher's Note v

Acknowledgments and Dedication vii, viii, ix

Introduction by Francis Farquhar xi, xii

Author's Foreword xiii

Chapter I
Prologue: Tenada and the Tschigmit Mountains, 1839 1

Chapter II
Prospectors Name the Great Ice Mountain 7

Chapter III
McKinley's Height Measured;
Mt. Foraker (Denali's Wife) Discovered 19

Chapter IV
Judge Wickersham Makes the First Climbing Attempt; and Dr. Cook Makes the Second—1903 31

Chapter V
Dr. Cook's Claim:
Mount McKinley, 1906; and the North Pole 1908 50

Chapter VI
Tom Lloyd's Sourdough North Peak Expedition—1910 69

Chapter VII
Sleuthing on Mt. McKinley:
The Explorers Club and the Mazamas 76

Chapter VIII
1912: The Cairns Attempt.
Parker and Browne Reach Twenty Thousand Feet 87

Chapter IX
1913: Alaskans Make the First Complete Ascent 105

Chapter X
Tragedy on the Muldrow.
The Pioneer Airplane Landings—1932 121

Chapter XI

*Billy Taylor, Sourdough:
The True Story of the N. Peak Climb at Last 143*

Chapter XII

Epilogue; and a Summit Photograph to Compare with Dr. Cook's 155

Footnotes 173

Literature References 177

Harry Karstens' Autobiography 184

Dr. Cook's Polar Journey 189

Glossary of Mountaineering Terms 195

Index 198

Maps:

Wrangell's 3

Dickey's 16

Herron's 18

Dunn's 41, 49

Cook's 57

Browne's 91

Modern U.S.G.S. 176