

LTCB International Library Trust/International House of Japan

The NEW MIDDLE AGES

THE WORLD SYSTEM IN THE 21ST CENTURY

Tanaka Akihiko

*Professor of International Politics
Institute of Oriental Culture
University of Tokyo*

Translated by
Jean Connell Hoff

LTCB International Library Selection No. 12

Contents

Preface to the English Edition.....	xiii
Preface .....	xvii

Chapter 1. WHAT WAS THE COLD WAR?

1. THE COLD WAR AS A BIPOLAR CONFRONTATION BETWEEN THE US AND THE USSR .....	3
The two superpowers .....	3
The theory of bipolar confrontation .....	5
Battlegrounds of the Cold War .....	7
2. THE COLD WAR AS A CLASH OF IDEOLOGIES .....	13
Political and economic liberalism .....	13
Marxism–Leninism .....	15
Battlegrounds in the clash of ideologies .....	17

Chapter 2. THE POST–COLD WAR WORLD

1. THE FINAL STAGES OF THE COLD WAR .....	23
The waning of Marxism–Leninism .....	24
The end of the Soviet empire .....	26
2. THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE END OF THE COLD WAR—WHAT HAPPENS NEXT? .....	30
Unipolar or multipolar? .....	31
When is war more likely to occur—under a bipolar or multipolar system? .....	36

The end or a reopening of a clash of ideologies? ..... 41

Chapter 3. THE AMERICAN HEGEMONY

1. HEGEMON AND SUPERPOWER ..... 45
  - “Predominance” or “leadership”? ..... 45
  - Meaning of “hegemony” takes a favorable turn ..... 48
  - The relation between a hegemon and a superpower 50
2. THE FUNCTIONS OF HEGEMONY—PROVIDING INTERNATIONAL PUBLIC GOODS ..... 52
  - Maintaining free trade and stabilizing international currencies ..... 52
  - Does a hegemon provide all international public goods? ..... 54
3. THE BASIS FOR HEGEMONY—ECONOMIC POWER OR ALL-ROUND POWER? ..... 55
  - The importance on economic power ..... 55
  - Economic power, military might, cultural influence and political power ..... 56
5. WHAT DID THE AMERICAN HEGEMONY ACHIEVE? ..... 58
  - Soviet Union not a hegemon ..... 58
  - Not peace but contributions to economic regimes ... 60

Chapter 4. AFTER HEGEMONY

1. THE DECLINE OF THE AMERICAN HEGEMONY ..... 65
  - Economic decline ..... 65
  - Decline in military superiority ..... 67
  - “Soft power” showing no signs of decline ..... 69
2. THE IMPACT OF HEGEMONIC DECLINE ..... 70
  - Free trade is alive and well ..... 71

Unstable international monetary system .....	76
The decline and emergence of various regimes .....	76
3. THE THEORY OF HEGEMONIC DECLINE .....	80
The impact of hegemonic decline on the functions of hegemony .....	80
The reason regimes continue to be maintained .....	82
Hegemonic long cycles .....	84

Chapter 5. AN INCREASINGLY INTERDEPENDENT WORLD

1. INDICATORS OF INTERDEPENDENCE—SENSITIVITY AND     VULNERABILITY .....	88
2. INTERSTATE INTERDEPENDENCE .....	90
Military interdependence .....	90
Economic vulnerability .....	92
The difficulty of reducing vulnerability .....	94
3. INTERDEPENDENCE BETWEEN STATES AND NON-STATES .....	99
Information, communications technology and the growth of interdependence .....	99
The relationship between states and big business ...	102
The spread of non-state entities and the rise in interstate vulnerability .....	106

Chapter 6. THE INSTITUTIONALIZATION OF     INTERDEPENDENCE

1. THEORIES OF INTERDEPENDENCE .....	109
Does economic interdependence promote peace? ...	109
Skeptical views .....	111
2. REGULATING INTERDEPENDENCE: INTERNATIONAL REGIMES	117
The UN and collective security .....	118

The UN's "peacekeeping" functions ..... 120
Nuclear control regimes ..... 123
Various economic regimes ..... 126

Chapter 7. A "NEW MEDIEVALISM"?

1. THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURES OF THE EUROPEAN
MIDDLE AGES ..... 134
A multiplicity of actors ..... 134
Ideological uniformity ..... 137

2. THE MODERN WORLD SYSTEM ..... 139
The overwhelming dominance of the modern sovereign state ..... 139
Ideological conflict ..... 140

3. IS THE PRESENT WORLD SYSTEM A "NEW MIDDLE AGES"? 142
The increasing importance of non-state actors ..... 142
The end of ideological conflict ..... 145
No similarity in terms of economic interdependence 149

Chapter 8. THE THREE SPHERES

1. WHAT ARE THE THREE SPHERES? ..... 154

2. THE FIRST (NEO-MEDIEVAL) SPHERE ..... 158
Difficulty distinguishing between international and internal issues ..... 158
Increasing importance of the "power of persuasion" ..... 160

3. THE SECOND (MODERN) SPHERE ..... 161
An imbalance between political and economic conditions ..... 161

A continuation of classic patterns in international affairs .....	163
4. THE THIRD (CHAOTIC) SPHERE .....	165
5. INTERACTION AMONG THE THREE SPHERES .....	167
Relations between the first and second spheres: state-centered interaction .....	167
Relations with the third sphere—expanding roles for the UN and NGOs .....	173
 Chapter 9. ASIA AND THE PACIFIC: THE CLASH BETWEEN THE “NEO-MEDIEVAL” AND THE “MODERN”
1. THREE SETS OF PROBLEMS .....	177
Territorial issues .....	178
The breakup of China and the partition of the Korean peninsula .....	181
The danger of an arms race .....	186
2. THE “MODERN” SPHERE IN ASIA AND THE PACIFIC .....	188
The impact of “multipolarization” .....	188
Mixture of political systems; possibility of hegemonic change .....	190
3. THE “NEW MEDIEVALISM” IN ASIA AND THE PACIFIC .....	192
Economic interdependence and the IT age .....	192
A multilateral regional framework .....	193
 Chapter 10. WHAT SHOULD JAPAN DO?
1. THE STATE’S ROLE IN THE “NEW MIDDLE AGES” .....	198
The future of nationalism .....	198
Is territory necessary? .....	200

2. JAPAN'S ROLE: ITS POLICY TOWARD THE FIRST SPHERE .....	202
A US-Japan Security Treaty that embodies common interests .....	204
Greater emphasis on Western Europe and Australia .....	207
2. RELATIONS BETWEEN JAPAN AND THE SECOND SPHERE .....	209
Some sort of balance of power needed .....	209
Making good use of multinational conferences .....	212
Improving relations with Russia .....	214
4. POLICIES TOWARD THE THIRD SPHERE—PEACEKEEPING AND AID .....	217
Impossible to ignore or keep quarantined .....	217
Active participation in UN peacekeeping activities	219
Economic assistance and humanitarian aid .....	220
Afterword .....	221
Notes .....	225
Abbreviations .....	251
Index .....	253

ILLUSTRATIONS

FIGURES

Figure 2-1	Types of distribution of power	33
Figure 4-1	American and Soviet strategic nuclear delivery systems	68
Figure 4-2	Global direct investment, GNP and trade	75
Figure 4-3	Yen-dollar market price since 1970	77
Figure 6-1	The hunting game	114
Figure 8-1	Model of the three spheres	156
Figure 8-2	National standing as determined by level of systemic freedom, average life expectancy, and per capita GDP as measured by purchasing power parity	157
Figure 9-1	Claims of various countries in the South China Sea	179
Figure 9-2	Framework for regional cooperation in Asia and the Pacific	194

TABLES

Table 1-1	The postwar frequency of wars by region	10
Table 2-1	Democratization in the contemporary world	25
Table 2-2	GDP and population of leading countries	30
Table 2-3	System features and the size and occurrence of wars (summary)	39
Table 4-1	World motor vehicle production	67
Table 4-2	Number of Nobel laureates (Natural sciences and economics)	70
Table 4-3	Modelski's long cycles in world politics	85
Table 5-1	GNP and sales of manufacturing companies	103