

THE STATE OF CHINA ATLAS

Mapping the World's Fastest-Growing Economy

Revised and Updated

Robert Benewick
and
Stephanie Hemelryk Donald

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA PRESS

Berkeley Los Angeles

Foreword by Tony Saich	7
Introduction	9
Part One CHINA IN THE WORLD	12
1 Trade	14
China, in conjunction with Hong Kong, is the second-largest trading nation in the world.
2 Investment	16
Foreign direct investment in China continues to grow, and China is developing its own overseas investments.
3 Military Power	18
China's regular armed forces comprise 9 percent of the world's total.
4 International Relations	20
China's international relations are influenced by a combination of ambition and nationalism.
5 Chinese Diaspora	22
Chinese outward migration over the centuries has created some strong overseas communities.
Part Two PEOPLE IN CHINA	24
6 Population	26
Over 1.3 billion people, one-fifth of the world's population, live in China.
7 The Gender Gap	28
There are more boys than girls in China.
8 Minority Nationalities	30
Around 10 percent of people in China are from one of 55 officially recognized ethnic groups.
9 Rural-Urban Inequality	32
China is one of the most unequal societies in the world.
Part Three THE ECONOMY	34
10 Economic Development	36
Between 1990 and 2007, China's economy grew by an average of 10 percent a year.
11 Entrepreneurs	38
The entrepreneur is fêted in popular self-help manuals and biographies.
12 Employment	40
There are at least 8 million new entrants each year into China's labor market.
13 Agriculture	42
Agriculture provides a declining share of China's GDP.
14 Industry	44
China's industrial output is expanding, with goods produced both for export and in the hope of building domestic demand.
15 Services	46
The share of GDP contributed by the services sector grew by 10 percent between 1997 and 2007.
16 Tourism	48
The major focus of China's tourism industry is on domestic tourists.
17 Energy	50
China's energy production has soared since 2002, in order to keep up with the demand of its growing economy.

Part Four THE ENVIRONMENT	52
18 Urbanization	54
China is undergoing the largest internal migration in the history of the world.
19 Transport	56
The growth of motorized traffic in China's cities is indicative of the drive towards rapid modernization.
20 Air Pollution	58
The conflict between environmental protection and economic growth is one of China's foremost dilemmas.
21 Water Resources	60
China is facing a water crisis – both in terms of supply and of quality.
Part Five GOVERNANCE AND RIGHTS	62
22 Who Runs China	64
China is a one-party state, with supreme power exercised by the nine members of the Politburo.
23 Chinese Communist Party	66
The CCP is the most powerful political party in the world.
24 The People's Liberation Army	68
The PLA is controlled by the Party-State through two arms of the Central Military Commission, both of them chaired by Chairman Hu Jintao.
25 Rule of Law	70
In the era of economic reform, China has moved towards enshrining the rule of law in the constitution and in practice.
26 State Versus Citizens	72
China is a more open society than 30 years ago.
Part Six LIVING IN CHINA	74
27 Households	76
China's one-child policy is creating a population with a high proportion of elderly dependents.
28 Food	78
China's national diet is changing, with urbanites eating an increasing amount of meat and dairy products.
29 Health	80
Increased commercialization of China's healthcare system is putting certain treatments beyond the means of many households.
30 Education	82
China has over 130 million children in primary and secondary education.
31 Media and Telecoms	84
China's burgeoning media sector is a sign of its growing economy.
32 Religion	86
Only five religions are allowed by the Chinese government.
Part Seven DATES AND DATA	88
Chronology 1949–1979	90
Chronology 1980–2010	92
Data Tables
China in the World	94
China: Population	96
China: Economy	98
China: Living and Lifestyle	100
China: Natural Resources	102
Commentaries and Sources	104
Select Bibliography	125
Index	126