

International Cartographic Association
ICA Commission on the History of Cartography in the 19th and 20th centuries
www.ichistcarto.org

Proceedings of the Symposium on the History of Cartography

“Shifting boundaries: Cartography in the 19th and 20th centuries”

Portsmouth University, United Kingdom
10-12 September 2008

Edited by Elri Liebenberg, Imre Josef Demhardt and Peter Collier

CONTENTS

Christopher Board

The style sheet for the War Office series GSGS 1764, Cape Colony Reconnaissance Series.

Lindsay Frederick Braun

The Colonial Archive and Maps of the Transkei, 1857-1898.

Emanuela Casti and Federica Burini

Cartographic cataloguing and filing: Towards a new definition of the colonial mapmaker.

Peter Collier

Not just Trench maps.

Andrew David

The emergence of the Admiralty Chart in the Nineteenth Century.

Imre Josef Demhardt

Mapping the Greater Germany: Paul Langhans, political cartography and the Perthes' national' atlases of the 1890's.

Kathrin Fritsch and Isabel Voigt

"Local knowledge is wonderfully good, but..." - African Knowledge in European Maps.

Maria Gussarsson-Wijk

Before and after the splitting-up of Sweden-Finland: 19th century Military Maps of Finland in the Swedish Military Archives.

Koji Hasegawa

Constructing the Empire: Cartography in prewar Japan.

Rachell Hewitt

"The Spirit of Observation": The Early Ordnance Survey and the British Culture of Patriotism.

Alexander J Kent

A methodology to classify and visualise stylistic evolution in topographic maps.

Jiří Krejčí

Jüttner's map of Prague of 1816 – research, cartometric analysis and visualization.

Elri Liebenberg

Shifting boundaries in Southern Africa: John Arrowsmith's map of the Cape of Good Hope of 1834.

Jana Moser

Border Contrasts – Border Conflicts: Examples from Northern Namibia.

Michael Nolan

The British military mapping of Hong Kong and the cruise of H.M.S. Pegasus.

Alastair Pearson and Mike Heffernan

Pan-Regional Mapping: The contribution of the International Map of the World and the AGS Map of Hispanic America to Global mapping in the Twentieth century.

Gordon Richings

Charles Cornwallis Michell (1793-1851). Pioneer Cape military cartographer.

Mirela Slukan Altic

The Croatian explorer Dragutin Lerman (1863-1918), and his contribution to the mapping of Central Africa.

Zsolt Török

The 'English' patient, fools, foxes and rats: exploration, mapping and war in the Lybian desert.

Nnabugwu O. Uluocha

The Cartographic Legacy of Colonial Administration in Nigeria.

Adrian James Webb

Who ran the British Admiralty's Hydrographic Office between 1808 and 1829?