

A NATION WITHIN A NATION

Organizing African-American Communities Before the Civil War

John Ernest

The American Ways Series

IVAN R. DEE Chicago

Contents

Preface vii

Acknowledgments xi

- 1 Cities on the Hill: Organizing Communities 3
The scattered community. Negotiating racial identity and African heritage. Isolated in a white nation. The growth of organizations. Alliances and tensions in the anti-slavery movement.
 - 2 Mutual Interest, Mutual Benefit, Mutual Relief 29
Group identification in mutual aid and benevolent societies. Gender and associations. The need for organized efforts. The promotion of virtue.
 - 3 “Plain and Simple Gospel” 53
Racial discrimination in the church. Establishing black churches and denominations. Religion and racism. Developing black theologies. The church’s social mission.
 - 4 “The United Wisdom of the World” 82
Uncertain beginnings and development of black freemasonry. Origins and development of the Grand United Order of Odd Fellows. Limits of brotherhood. Attractions of fraternal societies. Brotherhood and community.
 - 5 “The Collected Wisdom of Our People” 107
Proliferation of conventions. Resisting white limitations on citizenship. Promoting self-governance. Addressing tensions within the community. Women in the convention movement. Addressing moral degradation within and beyond the black community. Promoting an inclusive republic.
 - 6 Breaking “The Chains of Ignorance” 139
Educational needs. White opposition to integrated schools. Establishing schools for black children. Segregated public schools. Literary societies.
 - 7 “Our Warfare Lies in the Field of Thought” 164
Racism in the mainstream press. Self-representation and the press. Important newspapers and magazines. Supporting the black press.
 - 8 Postscript 191
- A Note on Sources* 197
- Index* 203
- About the Author* 215