

Mark Pieth (ed.)

Professor at the University of Basel

Collective Action: Innovative Strategies to Prevent Corruption

Table of contents

Contributors	VII
About the Basel Institute on Governance and the International Center for Collective Action (ICCA).....	XVIII
Acknowledgements.....	XIX
Abbreviations.....	XX

Introduction

MARK PIETH

Collective Action and corruption	3
--	---

Driving forces for Collective Action

DIRK LEHMKUHL

Non-state actors in regulation	25
--------------------------------------	----

ROBERT KLITGAARD

Public-private collaboration and corruption	41
---	----

NICOLA BONUCCI

The fight against transnational bribery: the value of Collective Action seen from an international organization's perspective.....	67
---	----

MASSIMO MANTOVANI

The business case for Collective Action	73
---	----

Initial experiences and pioneering initiatives in Collective Action

COBUS DE SWARDT AND MICHAEL WIEHEN

Islands of Integrity	83
----------------------------	----

GEMMA AIOLFI AND HANS-PETER BAUER

The Wolfsberg Group.....	97
--------------------------	----

JONAS MOBERG AND EDDIE RICH

Beyond governments: lessons on multi-stakeholder governance from the Extractive Industries Transparency Initiative (EITI).....	113
---	-----

FRANÇOIS VINCKE
The European Defense Integrity Initiative.....	125
OLAJOBI MAKINWA
Collective Action: the UN Global Compact’s innovative solutions for change	135
ALEX WONG AND JOEL FERNANDES
The Partnering Against Corruption Initiative (PACI)	147
RICHARD CALLAND AND JOHN HAWKINS
The Construction Sector Transparency Initiative (CoST): promoting public accountability through multi-stakeholder Collective Action	155
 The future of Collective Action
SABINE ZINDERA AND BIRGIT FORSTNIG-ERRATH
Siemens: promoting Collective Action – from theory to practice	177
JEROEN BRABERS AND SIRI SCHUBERT
Monitoring Collective Action: suggestions for self-assessment and third party monitoring	197
FRITZ HEIMANN
High-level reporting: overcoming extortion	209
ALEXANDRA A. WRAGE
Collective Action: a compliance case study.....	217
 Wrap up
DAMIAN HELLER
Collective Action in the next decade	231