

Financial Markets of Neutral Countries in World War II

Edited by Robert U. Vogler, Jörg Baumberger, Herbert R. Reginbogin and Jürg Spiller

Association for Financial History
Switzerland and Principality of Liechtenstein

Neue Zürcher Zeitung Publishing

Contents

Authors	7
Foreword
Robert U. Vogler	11
Introduction
Financial markets of neutral countries in World War II: Preliminary remarks Jörg Baumberger	13
Argentina
The economics of neutral countries during World War II: Argentine perspectives Carlos Winograd	45
Portugal
The Portuguese capital market during World War II Nuno Valério	101
Spain
The Spanish financial sector during World War II Gabriel Tortella	129
Sweden
Banks, financial markets and the Swedish state during World War II Peter Hedberg / Mats Larsson	165
Switzerland
Swiss banking in World War II Joseph Jung	207
Aspects of the life insurance business of Swiss insurance companies in Germany during the Third Reich Thomas Sieber	245

Turkey

World War II and capital market development in a neutral country:

The case of Turkey

Öner Günçavdı / Ertuğrul Tokdemir 281

United States of America

The United States financial market during World War II

Herbert R. Reginbogin 323