

EuropaInstitut

AN DER UNIVERSITÄT ZÜRICH

---

Herausgeber:
Andreas Kellerhals, Tobias Baumgartner

Multi-speed Europe

4th Network Europe Conference

Chisinau, 20th–23rd of September 2011

Schulthess § 2012

Table of Contents

JELENA CERANIC Differentiated integration – a good solution for the increasing EU heterogeneity?	13
ATTILA VINCZE Troubles in the high-speed lane – the financial crises and the monetary integration	37
PRZEMYSŁAW SAGANEK The Schengen method as an alternative to the enhanced cooperation	53
NIKOLAY NATOV Enhanced cooperation between the Member States in the area of law applicable to divorce and legal separation	77
ALEKSANDRA SOJKA/RAFAEL VÁZQUEZ GARCÍA Differentiated integration, differentiated identification? Perceptions of European identity across convergent Europe	101
HRVOJE BUTKOVIĆ Can flexible integration be a pattern for making progress in the EU's Eastern neighbourhood?	131
ANDREAS KELLERHALS Switzerland's relationship with the EU: integration at its own speed?	147
VIOREL CIBOTARU Moldova's way to European Union – What is more important, the process or the aim?	165
LUCIA BIZOŇOVÁ Slovakia and its position in multi-speed-Europe	171