

THE

Clemens Steenbergen Wouter Reh
Steffen Nijhuis Michiel Pouderoijen

Contributions: Inge Bobbink, Bert van den Heuvel and Saskia de Wit

POLDER

ATLAS

PANTHEON
OF THE LOW LANDS

OF THE

NETHER

LANDS

THOTH Publishers, Bussum

CONTENTS

Foreword 8

Preface 12

I THE POLDER AS A LANDSCAPE ARCHITECTONIC ASSIGNMENT 15

- 1 The polder landscape as unfinished design 19
- 2 The polder landscape as a formal system 20
- 3 The polder landscape as design atlas 21

II THE FORM OF THE POLDER 23

- 1 The polder as spatial entity 25
- 2 Delimiting the polder land 26
- 3 The scales of the polder form 27
- 4 Layers of the polder form 28
- 5 Typological aspects of the polder form 29
- 6 The formal concept 30

III THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE POLDER LAND 33

- 1 The formative power of water 35
 - The coastal landscape 35*
 - The river landscape 38*
 - The peat landscape 39*
- 2 The first polder forms 43
 - Polders in the coastal landscape 43*
 - Polders in the river landscape 51*
 - Polders in the peat landscape 51*
- 3 The creation of the polder-boezem system 55
- 4 The organisation of the polder land 63
- 5 The development of the polder as an administrative unit 69
- 6 Polder topography of 1850 as viewfinder 71

IV THE POLDER MAP 73

- 1 A new step in polder cartography 75
- 2 Raw materials 77
- 3 The drawing process 83
- 4 The structure of the legend 86
- 5 The legend and the division into map pages 89
- 6 Map pages 90
- 7 Explanatory examples 160

V POLDER FORMATIONS AND POLDER COMPLEXES 175

- 1 The division into polder formations 177
 - 2 The northern sea clay polders 178
 - 3 The northern peat polders 182
 - 4 The peat polders of the Northern Quarter 183
 - 5 The Utrecht-South Holland peat polders 185
 - 6 The south-western sea clay polders 189
 - 7 The river polders 191
 - 8 The IJsselmeer polders 194
-

VI POLDERS 197

Examination of seventeen polders 199

- 1 The Tzummerpolder 200
- 2 The Rondehoep 214
- 3 The Alblasserwaard 230
- 4 The Kockengen Polder 254
- 5 The Valburg-Homoet Polder 268
- 6 The Borssele Polder 282
- 7 The Mastenbroek Polder 296
- 8 Het Bildt Polder 310
- 9 The Zijpe 324
- 10 The Beemster 338
- 11 The Schermer 354
- 12 The Wilde Veenen Polder 370
- 13 The Haarlemmermeerpolder 384
- 14 The Bethune Polder 400
- 15 The Biesbosch Polder 416
- 16 The Noordoostpolder 430
- 17 South Flevoland 454

VII TYPOLOGY 471

- 1 Typological aspects of the natural form 473
- 2 Typological aspects of the hydraulic form 474
 - The drainage pattern* 474
 - The boezem and the outlet form* 475
 - The hydraulic works* 477
 - The dike form* 478
- 3 Typological aspects of the agricultural form 479
- 4 Typological aspects of the settlement form 479
 - The form of the farmhouse and farmyard* 479
 - The form of villages and cities* 479
- 5 Typological aspects of the landscape architectonic form 480
 - The polder as a landscape architectonic composition* 481
 - Composition and research by design* 481

VIII CRITIQUE AND PERSPECTIVE 487

- 1 The polder as a work of art 489
- 2 The collective conquest of the wilderness 491
- 3 The exaltation of land reclamation 493
- 4 The architectonic stamp 496
- 5 The concept of the architectonic landscape 499
- 6 The polder as national project 505
- 7 The lost wholeness of the world 507
- 8 The democratisation of the polder form 510
- 9 Toward a new polder ideal 513

Literature and sources 518

Index to the polder map – from name to location 526

Index to the polder map – from location to name 581

List of polder data according to Van der Aa 596

Landscape architectonic, landscape and hydraulic terms 627

Index to personal names and places 636

About the authors 640