

EuropaInstitut

AN DER UNIVERSITÄT ZÜRICH

Herausgeber:

Andreas Kellerhals, Tobias Baumgartner

New dynamics in the European integration process – Europe post Brexit

9th Network Europe Conference
Scotland, 25th–28th June 2017

Table of Contents

DIARMUID PHELAN Brexit and British Europe, Fexit and Ireland – Complexity and the nature of law, democracy and the division of powers, and the rule of law	13
CAL LE GALL UKIP, Alternative für Deutschland, Partij Voor de Vrijheid, Front National – Do eurosceptic parties benefit from displaying eurosceptic stances?	31
JELENA CERANIC Trade Union, Multi-speed Europe, United States of Europe – Juncker’s future integration models: Legal implications & reality check	55
PRZEMYSŁAW SAGANEK European (dis)integration perspectives – East meets West?	79
MICHAEL AMBÜHL/DANIELA S. SCHERER Free Movement of Persons – Is regulation possible?	99
TOBIAS LOCK Scotland and Brexit	117
CORINNE REBER Swiss Bilateral Agreements with the EU as an inspiration for a future UK-EU relationship?	143
ATTILA VINCZE Great leap forward or a permanent revolution – Reflections on the Reflection Paper on Deepening the Economic and Monetary Union	167

PETER RODRIGUES	183
Migration and Security in times of the refugee crisis – Perspectives for Dublin and Schengen
DARINA DVORNICHENKO	203
Social Dimension of Europe – The Commission’s strategy for a European Pillar of Social Rights
TATJANA MURAVSKA	225
Political Economy of EU Trade Deals – A Canadian Model	