

Soviet Design

From Constructivism
to Modernism

1920-1980

Kristina Krasnyanskaya
Alexander Semenov

Scheidegger & Spiess

Contents

- 8 FOREWORD by Christina Lodder
Soviet Design: The International Dimension
- 14 FOREWORD by Kristina Krasnyanskaya
- 22 FOREWORD by Elizaveta Likhacheva
Soviet Design in the International Context
- 28 Introduction
- WHAT IS SOVIET DESIGN?
 The Value and Development of Soviet Design in the Context of the Historical and Political Situation

1

Soviet Design of the 1920s

Chapter 1	38
THEORY AND PRINCIPLES OF SOVIET DESIGN IN THE 1920s
1. Art in Production and Furniture Design	41
2. Principles of Furniture Design for the New Style Housing	57
3. Furniture Design Theory at VKhUTEMAS–VKhUTEIN	66
Chapter 2	84
AVANT-GARDE CONCEPTS OF FURNITURE PRODUCTION: FROM FORMALISM TO RATIONALISM AND CONSTRUCTIVISM. EL LISSITZKY, VLADIMIR TATLIN, NIKOLAI SUETIN, ALEXANDER RODCHENKO AND THE OTHER FOUNDERS OF SOVIET DESIGN
1. Furniture as Art	87
2. Furniture as Function	88
3. An Integrated Approach to the Creation of Furniture Projects	133
Chapter 3	156
FURNITURE DESIGN AND PRODUCTION IN THE 1920s
1. Art in Production: Education	158
2. Mass Production and Popularization of New Furniture Projects: The Social Context	162

2

Soviet Design from the 1930s to the early 1950s

Chapter 4 172

THEORETICAL FOUNDATIONS AND PRINCIPLES OF DESIGN: FROM THE 1930s TO THE EARLY 1950s

1. After the Avant-Garde: Mastering the Classical Heritage 174
2. Art Deco: Between Constructivism and Soviet Neo-Classicism 185
3. Construction and Decor in Soviet Neo-Classicism 190

Chapter 5 194

FURNITURE CONCEPTS FROM POST-CONSTRUCTIVISM TO SOVIET NEO-CLASSICISM:

Boris Iofan, Nikolai Lanceray, Karo Halabyan, Yuri Solovyev and Others

1. Post-Constructivism 196
2. Art Deco in the USSR 204
3. Soviet Neo-Classicism 262

Chapter 6 294

PLANNING AND MASS DESIGN: FROM THE 1930s TO THE EARLY 1950s

1. Communication Between Planner and Industry 294
2. Mass Production and One-of-a-kind Furniture 300
3. Consumer Needs and Desires 307

3

Soviet Design from the late 1950s to the 1980s

Chapter 7 314

SOVIET MODERNISM AS THE LAST GREAT STYLE IN SOVIET DESIGN

1. Post-War Design and the All-Union Furniture Exhibitions 318
2. The System of Furniture Design in the USSR 327

Chapter 8 330

THE GOLDEN DECADE OF SOVIET INTERIOR DESIGN

1. Developing New Forms and Types of Designs for Small Apartments 331
2. Yuri Sluchevsky and the Search for Purity of Form: Modular Furniture 364

Chapter 9 370

THE 1970s–1980s: THE NEW GENERATION OF DESIGNERS

1. Mass-Production Furniture of the 1970s and 1980s 371
2. Paper Designs and Experimental Furniture 382

CONCLUSION 400

Biographies 406

List of Sources 436