

How to Market Books

Fifth edition

Alison Baverstock

Contents

List of illustrations	xii
Author's foreword and acknowledgements	xiv
Foreword: Professor Emeritus Michael J. Baker, University of Strathclyde, UK	xix

PART I

General principles and understanding	1
1 Marketing and marketing in publishing	3
The meaning of marketing	5
What marketing means in publishing	6
Checklists for achieving good marketing	8
Segmenting, targeting and positioning	13
Branding	16
Integrated marketing communications (IMC)	17
Relationship marketing	18
2 What's for sale?	22
Roles and situations in which content might be marketed	23
Where the marketing and selling of publishing content goes on	34
Who is involved in marketing?	36
3 Understanding the market: market research and other sources of market information	44
Defining terms: market insight, insight hypothesis, market intelligence and market research	46
Secondary and primary research	48
How to commission market research	52
Syndicated market research within the publishing industry	53
Examples of how market research might get used in a publishing context	57

4	Profit, loss and accountability	61
	Drawing up a budget	62
	How a budget is divided up	62
	How do you set a budget?	64
	Sample costings for publishing products and services	68
	When to spend a budget	72
	How to monitor a budget	73
	How to make a budget go further	74
	Managing cash flow	78
	Securing sponsorship, partnerships and other methods of financial support	79
	Hanging on to a marketing budget	81
PART II
	Putting this into practice	91
5	‘The medium is the message’	93
	Important information before you start – to ensure your market can find you	94
	Different formats for marketing information	95
	Advance information	96
	A website entry	99
	Jacket/cover copy	100
	Catalogues	103
	Leaflets and flyers	106
	Posters, showcards and point of sale	109
	Space advertising	109
	Telesales campaigns	111
	Radio, television and cinema advertising	112
6	How to write a marketing plan	113
	Introduction	113
	Coming up with a plan	114
	What have we got to sell? Researching the product	115
	Who is it for? Researching the market	118
	What benefits does the product/service offer your market?	120
	Initial situation analysis: where are we now?	120
	Establishing objectives: what do we want to achieve?	123
	Developing a strategy: how will we get there, in broad terms?	124
	Formulating a plan: how will we get there, in detail?	124
	Marketing basics	124
	Developing marketing plans for individual titles	126
	Allocating a budget: how much will it cost?	129
	Communicating the plan to others	130
	Motivating the implementation of the plan	131

	Evaluating results	131
	A final checklist for marketing plans	132
7	Selling		144
	Influences on individual buyer behaviour	146
	Selling to individuals	148
	Top tips for effective sales communication	150
	How selling works in a publishing context	152
8	Direct marketing		170
	Why the principles of direct marketing matter to publishers	171
	The essentials for a direct marketing campaign	172
	Plans	173
	The audience	174
	Offers	175
	The most appropriate medium for direct marketing	175
	Timing	176
	The copy platform	177
	Response devices	183
	Design services	188
	System of despatch	188
	Monitoring effectiveness	189
	Fulfilment services	191
	Telemarketing	193
	A final checklist for all forms of direct marketing	195
9	Online marketing		206
	Core principles for marketing online	208
	Specific advice for particular online media	215
	Websites	215
	Blogging	224
	Email	229
	Social media: Facebook	236
	LinkedIn	238
	Twitter	242
	Author involvement online	248
10	Publicity and PR		257
	The practicalities of dealing with the media	258
	The recipient – understanding journalists	260
	The role of the press release	263
	Offering an exclusive	268
	Review lists	269
	Literary editors	271
	Inspection copies	273

x Contents

Author interviews	273
How to sell ideas to journalists by email and telephone	276
11 Working with authors and other vital partnerships		283
Authors	283
How to work well with authors	287
Working with authors who have previously self-published	288
Working with other industry suppliers	292
Working with publishing colleagues	293
Working with individual freelance staff	295
Temporary staff on work placement or work experience	296
12 Organising events, presentations and other opportunities to share content		297
Ten top tips for preparing for events	297
Organisational meetings	300
Sales conferences	300
Promotional parties and title launches	302
Press conferences	305
Author tours, literary festivals and signing sessions	305
Exhibitions	311
Awards and literary prizes	311
13 Techniques for writing effective copy		316
What is copywriting?	316
Six basic principles	318
Acronyms for copywriters	320
Further techniques for effective copywriting	324
Other ideas for attracting attention	334
Writing headlines	335
Writing copy for titles you do not understand	337
Disentangling long and difficult blurbs	337
Presenting and defending your copy	340
14 The layout and dissemination of marketing materials		342
Design	342
What is good design?	343
How promotional text gets read	343
How to find a designer	344
How to work effectively with a designer	346
How a design job progresses	350
How to proofread text	351
Managing without a designer	352
Getting material printed	354
How to request an estimate from a printer	355

PART III

Specific advice for particular markets	359
15 Approaching specific interest markets: the value and significance of the niche in publishing	361
Finding the general reader	363
Marketing children's books	369
Opportunities for children's publishers today	370
Key difficulties for those marketing children's titles	374
Marketing techniques for promoting children's titles	376
Selling resources to public libraries	378
How to send information to public libraries	380
Public lending right	383
Promoting to university academics	385
Promoting textbooks to the academic market	389
Summary books and study aids	391
Research monographs	392
Professional resources	392
Selling to academic libraries	392
Selling to educational markets	396
How to reach the market	403
Selling educational material to international markets	409
Marketing to doctors and other healthcare professionals	410
How to communicate effectively with doctors	411
When is the best time to promote to doctors?	416
Other opportunities for publishers in this area	417
The role of medical librarians	421
Selling to professional and industrial markets	422
Important information for approaching professional markets	422
Format of published and marketing material	425
Glossary	429
Appendix	449
Bibliography	455
Index	459

List of illustrations

Figures

- | | | |
|-----|---|-----|
| 2.1 | The changing balance of income streams is reflected in table 2.1 and these two pie diagrams, which compare the different sources of income for BMJ in (a) 2007 and (b) 2013. Courtesy of BMJ | 35 |
| 3.1 | Discovery of books bought: volume, 2013. Data courtesy of Nielsen Book Services [trading as Nielsen BookData]. Layout and presentation courtesy of Nielsen Book Services [trading as Books & Consumers] | 54 |
| 3.2 | Purchase influences: volume, 2013. Data courtesy of Nielsen Book Services [trading as Nielsen BookData]. Layout and presentation courtesy of Nielsen Book Services [trading as Books & Consumers] | 55 |
| 3.3 | Buyer demographics: volume, 2013. Data courtesy of Nielsen Book Services [trading as Nielsen BookData]. Layout and presentation courtesy of Nielsen Book Services [trading as Books & Consumers] | 55 |
| 3.4 | Buyer weight of book purchase: volume, 2013. Data courtesy of Nielsen Book Services [trading as Nielsen BookData]. Layout and presentation courtesy of Nielsen Book Services [trading as Books & Consumers] | 55 |
| 5.1 | A sample academic flyer. Courtesy of Routledge/Taylor & Francis Group Limited | 107 |
| 5.2 | A dump-bin for Enid Blyton titles, shown both front- and side-on. Courtesy of Hachette Children's Publishing | 110 |
| 6.1 | Figure showing onion skin model of a product's benefits: core benefit, actual benefit, augmented benefit; adapted from Stokes and Lomax (2008: 221). Courtesy of Cengage | 120 |
| 6.2 | Figure showing how micro and macro fit together; adapted from Stokes and Lomax (2008: 38). Courtesy of Cengage | 121 |
| 6.3 | SWOT analysis diagram for a new fiction imprint | 122 |
| 6.4 | Cover for Inside Book Publishing , fifth edition. Courtesy of Routledge/Taylor & Francis Group Limited | 133 |

7.1	Analytical thinking/practical thinking/relational thinking/ experimental thinking diagram. Courtesy of Miradorus	149
8.1	Mailing results for a recent Reading Force marketing campaign. Courtesy of Reading Force	203
9.1	BookMachine website. Courtesy of BookMachine	217
9.2	Kingston University Publishing blog. Courtesy of Kingston University	226
9.3	Sample from Jessica Palmer's email newsletter. Courtesy of Jessica Palmer	235
9.4	CompletelyNovel Facebook page. Courtesy of CompletelyNovel	241
9.5	HarperCollins Game of Thrones tweet. Courtesy of HarperCollins	247
10.1	Diagram of how a press release can be effectively structured	265
10.2	Sample press release for Mandela: My Prisoner, My Friend by Christo Brand. Courtesy of John Blake/Midas PR	266
11.1	Picture of Kit Berry alongside her husband and fans at a book signing event in Glastonbury promoting the final Stonewylde book. Reproduced with kind permission of Kit Berry	292
13.1	Flyer for lawn-mowing service	323
13.2	Winnie the Witch's cat Wilbur is sufficiently recognisable to be useful to his publisher OUP in various capacities, from featuring in marketing materials to becoming the star of new titles (he has now featured in a range of first concept board books). His creators are author Valerie Thomas and illustrator Korky Paul. Courtesy of Oxford University Press	334
13.3	Cornelia Parker, Cold Dark Matter: An Exploded View , 1991. Courtesy of the artist and Frith Street Gallery, London	338
15.1	The Society of Authors' old logo. Courtesy of the Society of Authors	369
15.2	The Society of Authors' new logo. Courtesy of the Society of Authors	369

Tables

2.1	The changing balance of income streams is reflected here and in figure 2.1, which compares the different sources of income for BMJ in 2007 and 2013. Courtesy of BMJ	34
4.1	Sample costings for publishing products and services	69
6.1	Table of marketing plan recommendations. Courtesy of Samantha Perkins	138