

Linsey Robb · Juliette Pattinson
Editors

Men, Masculinities and Male Culture in the Second World War

palgrave
macmillan

CONTENTS

- 1 Becoming Visible: Gendering the Study of Men at War 1
Linsey Robb and Juliette Pattinson

Part I The ‘Soldier Hero’

- 2 Fantasies of the ‘Soldier Hero’, Frustrations of the Jedburghs 25
Juliette Pattinson
- 3 ‘Man, Lunatic or Corpse’: Fear, Wounding and Death in the British Army, 1939–45 47
Emma Newlands
- 4 ‘Pinky Smith Looks Gorgeous!’ Female Impersonators and Male Bonding in Prisoner of War Camps for British Servicemen in Europe 71
Clare Makepeace
- 5 Becoming ‘a Man’ During the Battle of Britain:
Combat, Masculinity and Rites of Passage in the Memoirs of ‘the Few’ 97
Frances Houghton

Part II The Home Front Man

- 6 Rebuilding ‘Real Men’: Work and Working-Class Male Civilian Bodies in Wartime 121
Arthur McIvor
- 7 ‘Bright Chaps for Hush-Hush Jobs’: Masculinity, Class and Civilians in Uniform at Bletchley Park 145
Chris Smith
- 8 ‘The Cushy Number’: Civilian Men in British Post-war Representations of the Second World War 169
Linsey Robb
- 9 Commemorating Invisible Men: Reserved Occupations in Bronze and Stone 189
Corinna Peniston-Bird
- Erratum to: Fantasies of the ‘Soldier Hero’, Frustrations of the Jedburghs E1
Juliette Pattinson
- Index 215