

Massimo Recalcati

The Mother's Hands

Desire, Fantasy and the Inheritance of the Maternal

Translated by Alice Kilgarriff

polity

Contents

Introduction	1
1 The Mother's Desire	8
The Hands; The Wait; The Face; Lalangue ; The Breast; Absence; Desire; Paranoia; The Name; Care; Transcendence
2 The Mother's Shadow	74
The Two Mothers and Solomon's Ruling; Wanting to Have a Child; Maternal Anxiety; The Child as Object; The Mother's Refusal; 'Primary Perversion'; The Mother's Enjoyment; Ange Duroc; The Mother-as-Crocodile; The Narcissistic Mother; A Fugitive Mother; The Medea Complex; Mommy
3 The Mother's Inheritance	134
Maternal Power; The Maternal Sentence; Maternal Inheritance; The Dead Mother; Mother and Daughter; Failure of Inheritance; Ravage ; Violence and Resignation; The Mother's Solitude; A Successful Inheritance
Epilogue	172
Being Fair To The Mother
Notes	174