

Zurich Studies in Archaeology
Vol. 9_2013

Tattoos and Body Modifications in Antiquity

Proceedings of the sessions at the EAA annual meetings in The Hague and Oslo, 2010/11

edited by
Philippe Della Casa
Constanze Witt

Table of Contents

- 5 Aspects of Embodiment – Tattoos and Body Modifications in Antiquity
Philippe Della Casa & Constanze Witt
- 9 Matters of Identity: Body, Dress and Markers in Social Context
Philippe Della Casa
- 15 The Material Culture and Middle Stone Age Origins of Ancient Tattooing
Aaron Deter-Wolf
- 27 The Power to Cure: A Brief History of Therapeutic Tattooing
Lars Krutak
- 35 Flint, Bone, and Thorns: Using Ethnohistorical Data, Experimental Archaeology, and Microscopy to Examine Ancient Tattooing in Eastern North America
Aaron Deter-Wolf & Tanya M. Peres
- 49 Body Modification at Paracas Necropolis, South Coast of Peru, ca. 2000 BP
Elsa Tomasto Cagigao, Ann Peters, Mellisa Lund & Alberto Ayarza
- 59 Interpreting the tattoos on a 700-year-old mummy from South America
Heather Gill-Frerking, Anna-Maria Begerock & Wilfried Rosendahl
- 67 Bronze Age Tattoos: Sympathetic Magic or Decoration?
Natalia. I. Shishlina, E. V. Belkevich & A. N. Usachuk
- 75 One More Culture with Ancient Tattoo Tradition in Southern Siberia: Tattoos on a Mummy from the Oglakhty Burial Ground, 3rd-4th century AD
Svetlana V. Pankova
- 89 Tattoos from Mummies of the Pazyryk Culture
Karina Iwe
- 97 The Tattoo System in the Ancient Iranian World
Sergey A. Yatsenko
- 103 Intentional Cranial Deformation: Bioarchaeological Recognition of Social Identity in Iron Age Sargat Culture
Svetlana Sharapova
- 115 Roman Cosmetics Revisited: Facial Modification and Identity
Rhiannon Y Orizaga