

Zurich
Otorhinolaryngology,
Head & Neck
Surgery Department
1917–2017

Albert Mudry (Editor)

With the collaboration of

Alexander Huber, Andreas Heinrich Eckhard,
Dorothe Veraguth, Thomas Spillmann,
Christof Röösl, Norbert Dillier, Flurin Pfiffner,
Claudine Gysin, Stephan Schmid, Gerhard Huber,
Jörg Bohlender, David Holzmann, Michael Soyka, Rudolf Probst, Peter Ott, Vincent G. Wettstein and Nicole Peter

Content

- 6 Introduction
Alexander Huber
- 9 Establishment of Otorhinolaryngology (ORL)
as a Specialty at the Turn of the 20th Century
Albert Mudry
- 33 Felix Robert Nager and the Establishment of the Zurich ORL Department in 1917
Albert Mudry
- 49 100 Years of Life and Work of the
Zurich ORL Department
Andreas Heinrich Eckhard
- 59 The Changing Face of Deafmutism:
From Disability to Deafhood
Thomas Spillmann, Dorothe Veraguth
- 81 Temporal Bone Laboratory:
A Successful Source of Inspiration
Christof Röösl
- 99 Ugo Fisch and the Full Access to the Internal Auditory Canal
Albert Mudry
- 119 Cochlear Implant:
40 Years of Research and Development
Norbert Dillier, Flurin Pfiffner
- 137 Tonsillectomy: A Mythic Surgery
Claudine Gysin

- 149 Progress in Head and Neck Surgery
Gerhard Huber, Stephan Schmid
- 161 Phoniatrics: First Traces in Zurich –
Development of a Medical Specialty Dealing with Communication Disorders
Jörg Bohlender
- 173 From Microscopic to Endoscopic Sino-Nasal and Skull Base Surgery
David Holzmann, Michael Soyka
- 189 Evolution of Teaching ORL to Medical Students
Rudolf Probst, Peter Ott
- 209 The Evolution of Vestibular Research, Diagnostics and Treatment at the University Hospital Zurich
Vincent G. Wettstein
- 223 100 Years Otorhinolaryngology, August 30th to September 2nd 2017
Nicole Peter, Alexander Huber