

Dialogue and Disputation in the Zurich Reformation

Utz Eckstein's
Concilium and Rychsztg

EDITION, TRANSLATION AND STUDY

Nigel Harris and Joel Love

PETER LANG

Oxford • Bern • Berlin • Bruxelles • Frankfurt am Main • New York • Wien

Contents

Preliminary remarks	7
Introduction	9
Utz Eckstein (c. 1490–1558)	14
Eckstein's works	18
Eckstein, contemporary Zurich, and beyond	27
Eckstein and the Swiss communal consultation	32
Eckstein's Zwinglian theology	37
Eckstein on politics and society	46
The Concilium and Rychsztag as literature	51
Textual history of the Concilium and Rychsztag	54
Approach to editing and translating	61
Edition and translation of the Concilium	63
Edition and translation of the Rychsztag	311
Appendix (additional material from the 1526 text of the Concilium)	457
Bibliography	487
Index	493