

Urs Zulauf

Dr. iur., Attorney-at-law

Mirjam Eggen

Dr. iur., LL.M., Attorney-at-Law

Swiss Financial Market Law

Table of Contents

Case Studies	XI
List of Abbreviations	XIII
References	XVI
Part 1: The Basics	1
1. The Swiss Financial Market	1
1.1 What is the Financial Market?	1
1.2 Facts und Participants	2
2. Financial Market Regulation – Purpose and Approaches	6
2.1 Subject Matter and Goals	6
2.2 Sources of Law	7
2.3 Regulatory Approaches	8
3. Swiss Financial Market Regulation – an Overview	9
3.1 The Financial Market Supervision Act	9
3.2 The Mortgage Bond Act	10
3.3 The Banking Act	11
3.4 The Stock Exchange Act	12
3.5 The Collective Investment Schemes Act	13
3.6 The Insurance Supervision Act and the Insurance Contracts Act	14
3.7 The Anti-Money Laundering Act	14
4. The Regulatory Process	15
4.1 The Promulgation of New Regulations	15
4.2 Laws and Ordinances	16
4.3 The FINMA Regulatory Process	17
5. Forecast	19
Part 2: Market Organization	21
6. Stock Exchanges and Securities Settlement Systems	21
6.1 Trading and Settlement Platforms	21
6.2 Stock Exchanges	22
6.3 Admission of Participants	23
6.4 Admission of Securities and Trading on the Exchanges	25
6.5 Other Trading Platforms	26

Table of Contents

6.6	Clearing and Settlement Systems	27
7.	Primary and Secondary Markets	27
7.1	Definitions	27
7.2	Transactions on the Primary Market	28
7.3	Securities Trading on the Secondary Market	29
8.	Forecast	30
8.1	Regulation of Financial Market Infrastructure to be Improved	30
8.2	Transparency on Primary and Secondary Markets to be Increased	32
Part 3:	Financial Products	35
9.	Securities	35
9.1	Definitions	35
9.2	Prospectus Requirements and Approval	37
9.3	Other Effects	38
10.	Book Entry Securities	38
10.1	Definitions	38
10.2	Effects	40
11.	Collective Investments	41
11.1	Definitions	41
11.2	Distinction	42
11.3	Forms of Swiss Collective Investments	44
11.4	Approval	47
11.5	Prospectus Requirements and Financial Statements	48
11.6	Other Requirements	48
11.7	Foreign Collective Investments	49
12.	Derivatives	50
12.1	Definitions	50
12.2	Forms	50
12.3	Prospectus Requirements and Approval	51
12.4	Other Requirements	52
13.	Structured Products	52
13.1	Definitions	52
13.2	Distinction	53
13.3	Prospectus Requirements and Approval	53
13.4	Other Requirements	54
14.	Insurance Products	55

14.1	Insurance Products as Financial Products	55
14.2	General Insurance Terms and Information Requirements	55
14.3	Other Requirements	56
Part 4:	Market Participants	57
15.	Authorization Requirements	57
15.1	Authorization, Licensing, Recognition, Approval, Registration	57
15.2	Client Funds as the Common Denominator	58
15.3	Authorization Activities	58
15.4	Foreign Service Providers	59
16.	Banks and Securities Dealers	60
16.1	Universal Banking	60
16.2	Banking Operations Requirements	61
16.3	Banking Supervision	62
16.4	Financial Reporting for Banks	64
16.5	Financial Groups and Conglomerates	64
16.6	Securities Dealers	65
17.	Insurance Companies	66
17.1	Insurance Activities	66
17.2	Authorization Requirements	67
17.3	Insurance Supervision	68
17.4	Swiss Solvency Test	69
17.5	Shared Regulation of Employee Pension Plans and Health Insurance	70
18.	Authorized Operations under Collective Investments Law	72
18.1	In General	72
18.2	Fund Management Companies	73
18.3	Collective Investment Companies	74
18.4	Custodian Banks	75
18.5	Asset Managers of Swiss Collective Investments	76
18.6	Distributors of Collective Investments	77
18.7	Representatives of Foreign Collective Investments	77
19.	Asset Managers and Investment Advisers	78
19.1	In General	78
19.2	Asset Managers and CISA	78
20.	Publicly Traded Companies	79
20.1	Publicly Traded Companies and Transparency	79

Table of Contents

20.2	Listing Publicly Traded Companies	80
20.3	Specifics of the Swiss Code of Obligations	81
Part 5:	Cross-Cutting Regulations	83
21.	Combatting Money Laundering	83
21.1	Concept and Purpose	83
21.2	Core Elements of Anti-Money Laundering Regulation	84
21.3	Regulatory Axles and the Forces that Drive Them	85
21.4	Predicate Offenses	86
21.5	Authorization Requirements and Supervision of Financial Intermediaries	87
21.6	Duties of Financial Intermediaries	88
22.	Rules of Conduct	90
22.1	Starting Point	90
22.2	FINMA Discussion Paper and Position Paper	92
23.	Market Protection Rules	94
23.1	Disclosure of Shareholdings in Publicly Traded Companies	94
23.2	Public Takeover Bids for Publicly Traded Companies	95
23.3	Market Abuse	96
24.	Bankruptcy and Restructuring under Financial Market Law	97
24.1	Rules and Regulations	97
24.2	Bank Insolvency Law	98
24.3	Protective Measures under Banking Supervisory Law in Case of the Risk of Insolvency	99
24.4	Banking Restructuring Law for Systemically Relevant Banks	100
24.5	Banking Restructuring Law	101
24.6	Banking Bankruptcy Law	102
24.7	Banking Depositor Protection Law	103
24.8	Bankruptcy Law for Insurance Companies and Collective Investments	104
25.	Forecast	105
Part 6:	Financial Market Supervision	107
26.	The Swiss Financial Market Supervisory Authority (FINMA)	107
26.1	Goals, Functions, Strategy	107
26.2	Organization	108
26.3	Core processes	110

26.4	Independence, Accountability, and Judicial Review	111
26.5	A Risk-Oriented Supervisory Approach	112
26.6	Reporting Obligations and Examinations as Regulatory Tools	113
26.7	Cooperation with Domestic Authorities	113
27.	Swiss National Bank	114
27.1	SNB's Supervisory Function	114
27.2	SNB's Contribution to Financial Stability	114
27.3	Macroprudential Supervision	115
27.4	Lender of Last Resort	117
27.5	Identification of Systemically Relevant Banks and Functions	118
27.6	Other Supervisory Functions	119
27.7	Cooperation among the SNB, FINMA and the FDF	120
28.	The Swiss Takeover Board	121
28.1	Functions and Organization	121
28.2	Statutes and Legal Remedies	121
29.	The Federal Audit Oversight Authority	122
29.1	Audit Supervision Act (ASA)	122
29.2	Functions and Organization	123
29.3	International Cooperation	124
30.	Self-Regulatory Organizations (SROs)	125
30.1	Self-Regulation under Financial Market Law	125
30.2	Pros and Cons of Self-Regulation	126
30.3	Enforcement by Self-Regulatory Organizations	128
Part 7:	Financial Market Enforcement	131
31.	Enforcing Financial Market Law	131
31.1	What is Financial Market Enforcement?	131
31.2	Financial Market Enforcement and Financial Market Supervision	131
31.3	Themes in FINMA Financial Market Enforcement	132
32.	FINMA Measures	134
32.1	Restoring Compliance with the Law	134
32.2	Identifying Violations of Supervisory Law	135
32.3	Removal of Persons in Positions of Responsibility and Prohibition from Practicing a Profession	135
32.4	Confiscation of Unlawful Gains – No Fine	137

Table of Contents

32.5	Publication of Orders and Prohibition from Practicing a Profession	138
32.6	Revocation of License, Liquidation and Bankruptcy	139
33.	Procedure	139
33.1	“Intervening” Administrative Procedure	139
33.2	Procedural Phases	140
33.3	The Appeals Process	141
34.	Parties to a Proceeding – Their Rights and Duties	141
34.1	Parties	141
34.2	Party Rights	142
34.3	Party Duties	143
35.	FINMA Investigating Agents	143
35.1	The Selection Process	144
35.2	Assignment, Supervision, Costs, and Investigation Reports	144
36.	Enforcement Guidelines and Information	145
36.1	Enforcement Policy	145
36.2	Public Information about Proceedings	146
37.	White Collar Crimes Related to Financial Markets	147
37.1	Stock Market Offenses	147
37.2	Other Financial Market Offenses	148
Part 8:	International Matters	149
38.	International Financial Market Regulation	149
38.1	Starting Point	149
38.2	International Standard Setters	149
38.3	The International Monetary Fund	151
38.4	The Group of 20 (G20)	152
38.5	EU Law	153
39.	International Cooperation	154
39.1	The Need for International Cooperation in Financial Market Supervision	154
39.2	“Bank Secrecy” as a Limitation on Access For Foreign Authorities	155
39.3	International and National Bases for Cooperation	157
39.4	Administrative Assistance involving Foreign Financial Market Supervisory Authorities	158
39.5	Cross-Border On Site Authorities	159
39.6	Cooperation in Bankruptcy and Restructuring	160