

Walter Haller

Emeritus Professor of Constitutional Law
University of Zurich

The Swiss Constitution in a Comparative Context

Second Edition, Updated and Supplemented

Contents

Preface to the Second Edition	III
Acknowledgments in the First Edition (2009)	IV
Select Bibliography	XI
Abbreviations	XIV
Introduction	1
Part I – Fundamentals	7
1. Historical Development	7
2. The Constitution of 1999	13
3. Comparative Context	15
4. Other Sources of Constitutional Law	18
A. International Law	18
B. Statutory Law	19
C. Case Law	20
5. Constitutional Interpretation	20
A. Verbal Analysis (wording)	21
B. Systematic Analysis	22
C. Historical Analysis (legislative intent)	22
D. Topical Analysis (contemporary understanding)	24
E. Teleological Analysis	25
F. Combination of Methods	26
6. Basic Principles	27
A. Rule of Law	27
B. Democracy	28
C. Federalism	31
D. Social Justice	33
E. Other Principles	34
7. Switzerland as Part of the International Community	37
A. Constitutional Guidelines	37

B. Switzerland and Europe	38
C. Membership in the United Nations and other Global Organisations	43
Part II – Federation, Cantons and Communes	45
1. Three Levels of Government: Overview	45
A. Federal Diversity	45
B. The Federation	47
C. Cantons	48
D. Communes	52
2. Federal Guarantees	54
A. Existence and Territory of the Cantons	54
B. Cantonal Constitutions	58
C. Protection of the Constitutional Order in the Cantons	61
3. Distribution of Competencies	61
A. Methods of Allotment in a Comparative View	61
B. Swiss Method of Assigning Tasks	64
C. Competencies of the Federation: Overview	70
4. Primacy of Federal Law	82
5. Federal Supervision and Federal Coercion	84
6. Intercantonal Treaties	87
Part III – Citizenship and Political Rights	93
1. Swiss Citizenship	93
A. Main Features	93
B. Distribution of Competencies	94
C. Acquisition of Citizenship by Law	96
D. Ordinary Naturalisation	96
E. Facilitated Naturalisation and Reinstatement of Citizenship	99
F. Loss of Citizenship	100
2. Legal Status of Foreign Nationals	101
3. Right to Vote	104
A. In General	104
B. Prerequisites in Federal Matters	106
C. Prerequisites in Cantonal and Communal Matters	107

B. Switzerland and Europe	38
C. Membership in the United Nations and other Global Organisations	43
Part II – Federation, Cantons and Communes	45
1. Three Levels of Government: Overview	45
A. Federal Diversity	45
B. The Federation	47
C. Cantons	48
D. Communes	52
2. Federal Guarantees	54
A. Existence and Territory of the Cantons	54
B. Cantonal Constitutions	58
C. Protection of the Constitutional Order in the Cantons	61
3. Distribution of Competencies	61
A. Methods of Allotment in a Comparative View	61
B. Swiss Method of Assigning Tasks	64
C. Competencies of the Federation: Overview	70
4. Primacy of Federal Law	82
5. Federal Supervision and Federal Coercion	84
6. Intercantonal Treaties	87
Part III – Citizenship and Political Rights	93
1. Swiss Citizenship	93
A. Main Features	93
B. Distribution of Competencies	94
C. Acquisition of Citizenship by Law	96
D. Ordinary Naturalisation	96
E. Facilitated Naturalisation and Reinstatement of Citizenship	99
F. Loss of Citizenship	100
2. Legal Status of Foreign Nationals	101
3. Right to Vote	104
A. In General	104
B. Prerequisites in Federal Matters	106
C. Prerequisites in Cantonal and Communal Matters	107

4.	Instruments of Direct Democracy: Overview	108
	A. Definitions	108
	B. Federal Level	111
	C. Cantonal Level	113
5.	Freedom of Decision as the Essence of Political Rights	113
Part IV – Parliament, Government and the Judiciary		117
1.	System of Government in a Comparative Context	117
	A. Parliamentary System	117
	B. Presidential System	118
	C. Semi-Presidential System	120
	D. Swiss System: Overview	120
2.	Bicameral Parliament	123
	A. In General	123
	B. In Switzerland	125
3.	The National Council	126
	A. Composition	126
	B. Eligibility and Incompatibilities	127
	C. Mode of Election	127
	D. Term of Office	130
4.	The Council of States	130
5.	Parliament at Work: Organisation, Procedures and Powers	132
	A. Institutional Framework	132
	B. Meetings	134
	C. Powers	136
6.	The Federal Council	139
	A. Composition	139
	B. Election	140
	C. Collegiate Principle and Administrative Units	143
	D. Powers	146
7.	The Federal Supreme Court	148
	A. Comparison with other Federal States	148
	B. Composition and Election	150
	C. Organisation	151
	D. Duties	152
	E. Court Proceedings	154

Part V – Fundamental Rights	157
1. General Considerations	157
A. Definitions	157
B. Comparative Context	159
C. Sources in Swiss Law	163
D. Implementation	166
E. Restrictions	170
2. Human Dignity: Basic Value, Guiding Principle and Civil Liberty	175
3. Civil Liberties and Freedoms	176
A. Right to Life and Personal Liberty	176
B. Right to Privacy	181
C. Right to Marriage and Family	183
D. Freedom of Religion and Conscience	184
E. Freedom of Expression	189
F. Academic Freedom and Freedom of the Arts	195
G. Freedom of Assembly and Association	197
H. Freedom of Domicile	201
I. Protection against Expulsion, Extradition and Deportation	202
J. Right to Property	203
K. Economic Freedom	205
4. Equality before the Law and Other Principles	208
A. Equality before the Law	209
B. Protection against Arbitrariness and Observance of Good Faith	215
5. Basic Procedural Rights	216
A. Procedural Safeguards in General	217
B. Guarantee of Access to the Court	219
C. Special Guarantees for Judicial Proceedings	220
D. No Deprivation of Liberty without a Due Process	222
E. Criminal Proceedings	224
6. Basic Social Rights	225
A. Right to Assistance when in Need	226
B. Right to Primary School Education	227

Part VI – Rule-Making, Treaties and Constitutional Jurisdiction 231

1.	Revision of the Constitution	232
	A. Distinction between Total and Partial Revision	232
	B. Total Revision	233
	C. Partial Revision	236
	D. Barriers to Constitutional Amendments	239
2.	Statutes, Decrees and Ordinances	242
	A. Form of Legal Norms and Other Acts	242
	B. Federal Statutes	242
	C. Federal Decrees	247
	D. Ordinances	247
3.	Treaties	249
	A. Definitions	249
	B. Treaty-Making Procedure	250
	C. Relationship between Treaties and Domestic Law	253
4.	Constitutional Jurisdiction	255
	A. Essence and Forms	255
	B. Comparative Context	257
	C. Swiss Model: Overview	260

Part VII – Rule of the Majority, Fundamental Rights, and Treaty Obligations 265

1.	Tense relationship	265
2.	Case Studies	268
	A. Ban on Minarets	268
	B. Deportation of foreign nationals	271
3.	Remedies to reduce tensions	276
	A. Reassessment of the right of initiative	276
	B. Extension of the barriers to popular initiatives	278
	C. Procedural remedies	279

Index		283
-------	--	-----