

Localizing the Contemporary
The Kunsthalle Bern as a Model

Peter J. Schneemann [ed.]

Table of Contents

	Foreword Peter J. Schneemann	9
<hr/>
1	Frame as Medium as Presence: Historical and Conceptual Perspectives on the Kunsthalle Bern as a Model Peter J. Schneemann	25
<hr/>
2	Structures and Infrastructures: Frameworks for Staging Art as Site
	The Wrapped Frame: Considering Art Gallery Architecture Bernd Nicolai	51
	Kunsthallen as Quasi-Independent Art Spaces: A Historical and Global Perspective Terry Smith	67
	Exposing the Foundation of the Kunsthalle Glenn Phillips	91
	Donald Judd at the Kunsthalle Bern in 1976: Ideal Museum, Local History, and Timeless Permanence Thierry Dufrêne	111

	Curating Constellations Within a Web of Solo Shows Hans Rudolf Reust	127
	Printed Matter: The Formal Identity of a Local Institution for Contemporary Art in an International Network Roland Früh, Ueli Kaufmann, Peter J. Schneemann, Sara Zeller	139
3	Performing the Social: Between the Local Institution and the Global Network
	An Architecture of Touch: The Kunsthalle as a Place Where Form Has Shaped New Attitudes of Being Susanne Neubauer	159
	Performing the Kunsthalle Damian Lentini	173
	The Kunsthalle Helsinki as an Artistic Battlefield of the Cold War from the late 1940s to the 1960s Maija Koskinen	191
	Mimicking Spatial Aesthetics: The Kunsthalle Effect on Young British Artists Diego Mantoan	207
	The Kunsthalle in Motion: Between Local Site, Space of Transit, and Global Platform Nadia Radwan	223
	The Letter to the Editor: The Value of Controversy in Bern Olivia Baeriswyl and Laura Bohnenblust	237
4	Presence as History: Memory Beyond a Collection
	Revivifying the Past: Exhibitions and Institutions Kari Conte	259
	Institutionalizing Process or Ephemerality and its Discontents: Exhibiting in the late 1960s in Europe and the United States Beatrice von Bismarck	275

	Memory as Icon: The Status of the Installation Shot at the Kunsthalle Bern Yvonne Schweizer	291
	When Modern Art Was Contemporary: The Museum of Modern Art as Kunsthalle Sandra Zalman	303
<hr/>
5	Postscripts
	Ten Theses Valérie Knoll	319
	Images Archives Documents: Inside out the Kunsthalle Bern A Visual Essay by Nicolas Brulhart and Geraldine Tedder	329
<hr/>
	Appendix
	Bibliography	355
	Biographies	369