

The background of the cover is a colorful illustration. At the top right, a young boy with brown hair, wearing a blue and white striped shirt and dark shorts, is climbing a rope. Below him, a large white banner is unfurling. At the bottom right, a man with blonde hair, wearing a dark jacket and a black hat, is pulling a rope from a woven basket. The scene is set against a light blue sky with soft clouds. The overall style is whimsical and child-friendly.
