

Jon D. Wood

Reforming Priesthood in Reformation Zurich

Heinrich Bullinger's End-Times Agenda

Vandenhoeck & Ruprecht

Contents

1	Situating Reformation Zurich within the End-Times Idiom of Christendom	7
1.1	Preface	7
1.2	Preliminary Remarks on Christian Tradition as an End-Times Narrative	9
1.3	End-Times Idiom in the Development of Ancient Priesthood	13
1.4	Late Ancient Foundation for Early Medieval Eschatology	14
1.5	Resurgent Apocalypticism in the High and Later Middle Ages	17
1.6	Apocalypticism through Renaissance Humanism and Reformation	20
1.7	The Peculiar Significance of the Zurich School of Eschatology	23
2	Clergy and Confessionalization	29
2.1	Concerning Confessionalization	29
2.2	Brief Introduction to the Sermones Synodales	33
2.3	Bullinger and the Cultivation of Zurich Eschatology	38
2.4	End-Times Idiom and its Political Impediments	41
2.5	Covenant as the Framework of Christian Society	42
2.6	Contextualizing Ministry	45
2.7	Eschatologized Confessionalizing: The Practicalities	49
2.8	Church-State Tension and the Zurich Identity after Kappel	51
3	End-Times Interplay of Doctrine and Lifestyle	59
3.1	Significance of the Two Foci of the Reformed Clerical Office	59
3.2	Introduction to the Episcopi -Diagrams	60
3.3	The What and How of Doctrina	62
3.4	The What and How of Vita	66
3.5	Differentiating Doctrina and Vita	68
3.6	Consolidating a Pan-Zurich Identity beyond Local Distinctions	71
3.7	Eschatologized Humanism	74

3.8	Clergy, Confessionalization, and a Reprise of the Exchange with Jud	77
4	Zurich Ministry From Prophethood to Priesthood	81
4.1	Complications of Clerical ‘Priesthood’	81
4.2	The Significance of Reviving the Priesthood	84
4.3	Caveats to Bullinger’s Concept of Reformed Priesthood	86
4.4	The Sacral Institution of Social Discipline	88
4.5	Communalization and Popular Concerns about Priesthood	90
4.6	Early Evangelical Preference for the Term ‘Preacher’	92
4.7	Bullinger and the Re-Establishment of Priesthood	94
4.8	Reformed Priesthood as a Necessary Pillar of Zurich Civilization	98
4.9	Priesthood and the Urgency of Salvation History	100
4.10	‘Drunkenness’: An Illustration of the Eschatological Framework for Reformation	101
5	Justification Revisited	105
5.1	(Re-)Sacralizing Zurich’s Clergy in Accord with Sacredness as Non-Possession	105
5.2	Epilogue	118
6	Appendix	121
	Episcopi -Diagrams from the Sermones Synodales	121
7	Abbreviations	137
8	Bibliography	139
	Primary Sources	139
	Zurich Bibles	139
	Other Works	139
	Secondary Sources	142