

Volume 5

Publication series

LAW & MANAGEMENT

Edited by

Executive School of Management, Technology and Law (ES-HSG)

University of St. Gallen

Bruno Mascello

Procurement of legal services and management of outside counsel

Table of Contents

Foreword	VII
Table of Contents	IX
Annex Contents	XIX
List of Figures	XXI
List of Abbreviations	XXIII
Bibliography	XXV
Introduction	1
Chapter 1: Management of outside counsel as part of operational management	3
I. Introduction	3
1. General	3
2. Changes in the legal market	4
A. The “new normal”	4
B. The complex trend pyramid	5
C. Trends in the legal market	6
a) Liberalisation	6
b) Globalisation	9
c) Technologisation	9
D. Trends in the attorney’s market	11
a) Demography	11
b) War for talent	12
c) Generation Y/Millennials	12
E. Customer trends	13
a) Legal risks	13
b) Increasing efficiency	14
c) Operations	16
F. Trends in the law firm	18
a) Competition	18
b) Profitability	19
c) Business Model	20

G. Drivers of change	22
H. Conclusion	24
3. Reasons for rising legal expenditures	25
4. Relevance of legal expenses in the company	26
A. Legal costs as part of the provision of goods and services	26
B. Scope of legal expenditures	27
a) Introduction	27
b) Personnel costs	27
c) Budget	27
d) Country comparison	28
aa) Germany	28
bb) USA	28
C. Relevance of costs for personnel and outside counsel	30
II. Positioning of the legal department	32
1. Role of the general counsel	32
A. Historical development	32
B. Today's requirements	33
C. Challenges	35
D. General counsel in law firms	39
2. Positioning at the management level	39
A. General	39
B. Country comparison	40
a) Germany	40
b) USA and UK	41
3. Law as an interface function	41
A. Overview	41
B. Internal interface	43
C. External interfaces	44
D. Interfaces with service providers	45
III. Operational management of a legal department	47
1. Legal advice and operational activities	47
2. Management of outside counsel as operational task	49
A. General	49
B. Germany	50
C. USA	51

3.	Process optimisation	52
	A. Relevance of processes for legal departments	52
	B. Application cases: Internal policies	53
	a) Policies regulating cooperation with internal customers	53
	aa) Contents	53
	bb) Germany	54
	b) Policies regulating the cooperation with law firms	55
	aa) Contents	55
	bb) Germany	56
	C. Internal offsetting of the legal department costs	57
	a) General	57
	b) Cost centre vs. profit centre	57
	c) Allocation models	60
	aa) Types of models	60
	bb) Choosing the right allocation model	61
	d) Pros and cons of allocation	62
	e) Country comparison	63
	aa) Germany	63
	bb) USA	65
4.	KPI	65
5.	Summary	66

Chapter 2: Legal Sourcing

I.	Introduction	67
II.	Terminology	68
1.	Sourcing in general	68
2.	Other Terms	71
III.	Make or Buy	73
1.	General	73
2.	Activity analysis	76
3.	Core competencies	77
	A. General	77
	B. Determination of core activities	78
	C. Risks	81
	a) Risks associated with the decomposition of activities	81

b) Risks associated with the outsourcing of tasks	82
c) Outsourcing at law firms	82
4. Drivers
A. Make-and-buy ratio	84
B. Reasons for make	85
C. Reasons for buy	87
a) Reasons for outsourcing	87
b) Country comparison	89
5. Insourcing	89
A. Growing legal departments	89
B. Country comparison	90
a) Germany	90
b) USA	91
c) Switzerland	93
d) UK	93
C. Examples	93
a) Deutsche Bank	93
aa) Low Cost Centre Berlin	93
bb) Click4Legal	94
b) Carillion and Shell	94
6. Alternative legal service providers	95
A. Introduction	95
a) Overview	95
b) Strengths of the alternative legal service providers	98
c) Weaknesses of alternative legal service providers	99
B. Audit and accounting firms	99
C. NewLaw	102
a) Business model	102
b) Categories	102
c) Legal Process Outsourcing (LPO)	106
aa) Introduction	106
bb) Terminology and application	109
cc) Advantages and disadvantages of LPO	113
aa) Advantages	113
bb) Disadvantages	114
dd) Specialised knowledge	115
ee) Process-based business model	116
ff) Strategy process of an LPO provider	118
aa) Analysis	118
bb) Strategy	119

cc) Processes	121
dd) Systems	121
gg) Selection of LPO service providers	122
d) People specific models	122
aa) Legal project manager	122
aa) Management approach	122
bb) Scope of activity	124
cc) Relevance	124
bb) Lawyers on demand (interim lawyers, contract lawyers) ...	126
e) New job profiles	127
D. Excursus: Disruptive technologies	128
a) Introduction	128
b) Innovation vs. optimisation	129
aa) Innovation	129
bb) Optimisation	130
c) Concept and development history	130
aa) Structuring of the legal market	130
bb) Disruptive technology	132
d) Application to the legal market	136
aa) Business consulting as a pioneer	136
bb) Focus on processes and IT	136
cc) One-stop-shop and relevance of project management	137
e) Consequences for external law firms	138
f) Examples	142
7. Country comparison	144
A. Europe	144
B. Germany	145
a) Outsourcing rate by subject-matter	145
b) Outsourcing rate according to the size of the legal department ..	146
c) Expected increase in outsourcing to external parties	146
d) Differentiated procurement	147
C. USA	147
a) Outsourcing ratio according to the size of the legal department .	147
b) Outsourcing rate by company size	147
c) Differentiated procurement	148
D. UK	149
E. Switzerland	149
IV. Conclusion	150

Chapter 3: Professionalised procurement process	153
I. Introduction	153
II. Initiation	156
III. Demand analysis (internal analysis)	156
1. General remarks	156
2. Client vs. Customer	157
3. Customer orientation	160
4. Customer needs	162
A. Nature of the legal service	162
B. Instruction phase from a lawyer's perspective	163
C. Customer satisfaction	164
D. Customers' expectations	164
5. Interfaces to the customer	167
6. Interface to outside counsel	168
A. General	168
B. Forms of cooperation	168
C. Client Relationship Management (CRM)	170
7. Internal optimisation as primary measure	171
A. Purpose	171
B. Approaches to cost reduction	171
C. Example: USA	172
IV. Supply and market analysis (external analysis)	173
V. Procurement strategy	174
1. General	174
A. Relevance of strategy	174
B. Contents	174
C. Excursus: Search – Find – Assess	175
2. Law Firm Panel	177
A. Introduction	177
B. Terms and purposes	178
C. Advantages and disadvantages	179
a) Advantages	179

b) Disadvantages	181
D. Forms of panels	182
E. Size of panels	183
F. Setting up a panel	184
G. Operation of a panel	185
H. Country comparison	187
a) Europe	187
b) Germany	187
c) USA	188
d) UK	189
e) Switzerland	189
I. Examples	190
3. Role of the procurement department	192
A. Development	192
B. Areas of application	194
C. Examples	197
VI. Tender (request for proposal)	197
1. General	197
2. Structure and flow of a tender process	198
3. Preparation of the tender	200
A. Preparation by the customer	200
a) Setting objectives	200
b) Establishing a long list and short list	200
c) Forms and examples	201
d) Design	201
e) Scope of requested information	202
B. Preparation in the law firm	203
4. Execution and completion of the tender	205
VII. Evaluation and selection	206
1. Selection criteria	206
A. General	206
B. Performance criteria	207
a) Legal quality and service elements	207
b) Performance criteria	209
c) Cost-free additional services	212
d) Value creation and added value	214
C. Price criteria	215

D.	Additional Criteria	215
a)	General	215
b)	Selection of a lawyer or a law firm	216
c)	Organisation of the law firm	216
d)	The external law firm's service provision process	217
e)	Revenue drivers for outside counsel	217
aa)	Business Model	217
bb)	Partner income	218
cc)	Compensation models for partners	219
E.	Relevance of the gender factor	220
a)	Diversity	220
b)	Importance for the company's success	221
c)	Selection criteria	221
d)	Procurement criterion	222
e)	Conclusion	223
2.	Selection decision	223
3.	Country comparison	225
A.	Germany	225
B.	USA	227
C.	UK	228
4.	Excursus: Support in the selection	229
VIII.	Contract and implementation	229
1.	General	229
2.	Framework agreements	229
A.	General	229
B.	Contents	230
C.	Germany	231
3.	Mandate agreement	231
4.	Terms of a mandate	232
IX.	Mandating, instruction and management	234
1.	Mandate sovereignty	234
2.	Contractual agreement	235
3.	Instruction of outside counsel	235
4.	Management of outside counsel	236
A.	Relevance	236
B.	Push and pull systems	237

X. Fees	238
1. Introduction	238
2. Hourly fees	239
A. Growing importance of alternative fee models	239
B. Advantages	240
C. Disadvantages	240
D. Incentive system and risk allocation	243
3. Alternative fee arrangements	244
A. Introduction	244
B. Motivation	245
C. Requirements for both parties	247
a) Outside counsel	247
b) Customers and general counsel	248
D. AFA models	249
a) Overview of options	249
b) Budget and cost estimates	254
c) Team composition	254
d) Clear agreements	255
e) Excursus: Discounts and their effect	255
E. Country comparison	257
a) General	257
b) Germany	258
c) USA	258
aa) General	258
bb) Ratios and legal areas	259
cc) Law firms	260
dd) Companies	261
d) UK	261
F. Examples	262
a) Tyco/Eversheds	262
b) GlaxoSmithKline	263
c) Other cases	263
G. Results	264
XI. Invoicing	265
1. General	265
2. Form and language	266
3. Contents	266
4. Frequency	268

Table of Contents

5.	Customer experiences	268
6.	Invoices and cost control	269
A.	Invoice recipient	269
B.	Invoice and cost control	269
C.	Technical support	270
D.	Country comparison	271
a)	Germany	271
b)	USA	271
XII.	Controlling and evaluation	272
1.	Introduction	272
2.	Assessment criteria	273
3.	Evaluation process	273
4.	Country comparison	274
A.	Germany	274
B.	USA	275
C.	Company examples	275
XIII.	Measures	276
XIV.	Points of contact between the customer and outside counsel	277
Chapter 4: Summary and conclusion		279
Annexes		283
Index		301

Fig. 26: Course of development of disruptive technologies	135
Fig. 27: Business models: pyramid, diamond and column	140
Fig. 28: The professionalised procurement process in ten steps	155
Fig. 29: Customer orientation and benefits	161
Fig. 30: Information asymmetry	162
Fig. 31: Forms of cooperation	169
Fig. 32: Marketing phases: Search – find / select – assess	176
Fig. 33: Panel-sourcing strategies	183
Fig. 34: Distribution of the legal service providers according to the number and regions (of companies listed on the Swiss Stock Exchange)	190
Fig. 35: Structure and flow of a panel tender process	199
Fig. 36: Partner income (“the golden formula”)	218
Fig. 37: Touch points for outside counsel in customer’s procurement process	278