

International Arbitration

Comparative and Swiss Perspectives

Third Edition

Prof. Dr. Daniel Girsberger, Attorney-at-law, LL.M.

Prof. Dr. Nathalie Voser, Attorney-at-law, LL.M.

with the assistance of Davide Colacino, Attorney-at-law, LL.M.

and Julia Donchi, lic. iur.

Nomos

Schulthess § 2016

Contents

Authors' preface to the third edition	V
Authors' preface to the second edition	VII
Authors' preface	IX
Summary Contents	XI
Bibliography	XXXV
List of Abbreviations	LVII

Chapter 1

Introduction and Basic Principles	1
A. The concept of arbitration	3
I. The fundamental features of arbitration and the main differences from state court litigation	3
1. Definition	3
2. Arbitration as an alternative means of dispute resolution	3
3. The arbitration agreement – foundation of every arbitration	3
4. The arbitral tribunal	4
5. The parties choose the place/seat of the arbitration	6
6. The arbitration procedure is determined and controlled by the parties ..	7
7. The arbitral tribunal renders a final, binding and enforceable decision ..	7
8. Arbitrability	7
II. Other forms of alternative dispute resolution	8
1. What does alternative dispute resolution (ADR) mean?	8
2. Mediation and conciliation	8
3. Expert determination	12
4. Judicial conciliation in Switzerland	13
B. Types of arbitration	14
I. Ad hoc arbitration vs. institutional arbitration	14
1. Introductory comments	14
2. Ad hoc arbitration	15
a) Advantages	15
b) Disadvantages	16
c) Proper drafting of the arbitration agreement in ad hoc arbitration ...	18
3. Institutional arbitration	19
a) Advantages	21
b) Disadvantages	22
c) Choice of the arbitral institution	22
d) Drafting the arbitration agreement in institutional arbitration	23

II. Domestic arbitration vs. international arbitration	25
1. Introductory comments	25
2. International arbitration	25
a) Focus on the parties to the dispute	25
b) Focus on the nature of the dispute	26
c) A combined approach	27
3. Domestic arbitration	27
4. Difficulties resulting from the different concepts of “international” and “domestic”	28
C. Advantages and disadvantages of arbitration	29
I. Advantages of arbitration	29
1. Opportunity to choose the place of arbitration	29
2. Opportunity to choose the members of the arbitral tribunal	29
3. Arbitration leads to an enforceable arbitral award	30
4. Flexibility of arbitral proceedings	31
5. Confidentiality	32
6. Time	33
II. Disadvantages of arbitration	34
1. Costs	34
2. Limited powers of arbitrators	35
3. Conflicting awards	35
D. Regulatory framework of arbitration	35
I. Introductory comments	35
II. Regulatory framework of domestic arbitration	36
1. Comparative overview	36
2. Switzerland	36
III. Regulatory framework of international arbitration	38
1. Introductory comments	38
2. Supranational law	39
a) The New York Convention	39
b) The Geneva Protocol and the Geneva Convention	40
3. National law	40
a) The lex arbitri	40
b) UNCITRAL Model Law	42
c) Chapter 12 of the SPILA	43
aa) General characteristics of Chapter 12 SPILA	43
bb) Conditions for the application of Chapter 12 SPILA	44
d) Revision of Chapter 12 SPILA	47
4. Non-national law: Rules established by the parties or chosen arbitration rules	47
a) Introductory comments	47
b) Ad hoc and institutional arbitration rules	48

c) A few important and well-known institutional arbitration rules	48
aa) International Chamber of Commerce Arbitration Rules	48
bb) London Court of International Arbitration Rules	49
cc) International Centre for Dispute Resolution Procedures	50
dd) Swiss Chambers' Arbitration Institution Arbitration Rules	51
ee) China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission Arbitration Rules	52
ff) Singapore International Arbitration Centre Arbitration Rules	53
gg) Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre Arbitration Rules	54
hh) Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce Arbitration Rules	54
ii) German Institution of Arbitration Rules	55
d) Specialized arbitration institutions	56
aa) Court of Arbitration for Sport	56
bb) International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes	56
cc) World Intellectual Property Organization	57
5. Best practice standards	58

Chapter 2

The Arbitration Agreement and the Jurisdiction of the Arbitral Tribunal

	61
A. Introductory remarks	63
I. Definition and purpose of the arbitration agreement	63
II. Key elements of the arbitration agreement	63
B. Validity of the arbitration agreement	65
I. Comparative overview	65
1. Introductory comments	65
2. Form of the arbitration agreement	66
3. Substantive validity of the arbitration agreement	67
a) Consent to refer the dispute to arbitration (essentialia negotii 1)	68
aa) Interpretation of the parties' consent	68
bb) Degree of specificity required	68
cc) Pathological arbitration clauses	69
dd) Arbitration clauses incorporated by reference	69
ee) Asymmetrical or unilateral clauses	70
b) Designation of the legal relationship (essentialia negotii 2)	71
4. Who is bound by the agreement to arbitrate?	71
5. Subject matter covered by the parties' consent	75
a) Introductory comments	75
b) Counterclaim	75
c) Set-off	76
6. Arbitrability of the subject matter of the dispute	77
7. Capacity of parties to enter into an arbitration agreement	78

II. Swiss Law	80
1. General comments	80
2. Form of arbitration agreement	81
a) General comments	81
b) Requirements under Art. 178(1) SPILA	81
c) Special issues regarding the form of the arbitration agreement	83
d) Art. II(2) New York Convention	84
3. Substantive validity of the arbitration agreement	85
a) The principle of favor validitatis (Art. 178(2) SPILA)	85
b) Scope of Art. 178(2) SPILA	86
c) Law governing the substantive validity of the arbitration agreement	88
aa) Choice of a specific law by the parties to govern the arbitration agreement	88
bb) The law applicable to the merits of the dispute (lex causae)	88
cc) Swiss law	88
d) Consent of the parties with regard to the essential elements of the arbitration agreement (essentialia negotii)	89
aa) Consent to refer the dispute to arbitration (essentialia negotii 1)	89
bb) Designation of the legal relationship (essentialia negotii 2)	97
4. Who is bound by the agreement to arbitrate?	98
a) General principles	98
b) Extension as issue of substantive validity	99
c) Situations considered by the Swiss Supreme Court	99
5. Subject matter covered by the parties' consent	102
a) Introductory comments	102
b) Counterclaim	103
c) Set-off	104
6. Arbitrability of the subject matter of the dispute	104
a) Introductory comments	104
b) Special issues regarding arbitrability	106
aa) Competition and anti-trust law	106
bb) Family and succession law matters	107
cc) Intellectual property	107
dd) Non-enforceable claims	108
ee) Bankruptcy law	108
ff) Consumer disputes	108
gg) Employment disputes	109
hh) Company disputes	109
7. Capacity of the parties to enter into an arbitration agreement	110
8. Ineffective arbitration clauses under Swiss law	112
a) Formal deficiencies	112
b) Invalidity due to defect in the conclusion of the arbitration agreement	112
c) Deficiencies regarding content	113

C.	Content of an arbitration agreement	114
I.	Introductory comments	114
II.	Content of a properly drafted arbitration agreement	115
1.	Ad hoc or institutional arbitration	115
2.	Seat of arbitration	115
3.	Composition of the arbitral tribunal	116
4.	Applicable substantive and procedural law	116
5.	Language of the arbitration	117
6.	Agreement to exclude the right to challenge the award	117
7.	Provisions for multi-party proceedings	117
D.	Effects of the arbitration agreement	118
I.	Comparative overview	118
1.	Positive effects	118
a)	The parties' obligation to submit disputes to arbitration	118
b)	Enforcement of the obligation to arbitrate	118
c)	The arbitral tribunal has jurisdiction	119
2.	Negative effect	120
II.	Swiss law	121
1.	Enforcement of an obligation to submit to arbitration	121
2.	Review of the arbitral tribunal's jurisdiction by state courts	122
a)	Swiss Supreme Court's approach	123
b)	Arguments in favor of a limited (prima facie) review	125
c)	Arguments against a limited (prima facie) review	126
E.	Termination of the arbitration agreement	127
I.	Comparative overview	127
1.	Introductory comments	127
2.	Ways and reasons for termination	128
a)	Mutual consent to terminate the arbitration agreement	128
b)	Waiver	128
c)	Unilateral termination by one of the parties	128
d)	Purpose fulfilled by the rendering of a final award	129
e)	Purpose becomes impossible	130
3.	Effects of the termination of the arbitration agreement	130
II.	Swiss law	130
1.	Mutual consent to terminate the arbitration agreement	130
2.	Unilateral termination by one of the parties	131
F.	Theory of "separability"/"severability"	132
I.	Comparative overview	132
II.	Swiss law	133

G. Principle of “competence-competence”	134
I. Comparative overview	134
1. Introductory comments	134
2. The positive and the negative effect of “competence-competence”	134
3. Practical relevance of the principle of “competence-competence”	135
4. Combined effect of “separability” and “competence-competence”	136
II. Swiss law	136
1. Introductory comments	136
2. The arbitral tribunal’s ruling on its own jurisdiction	136
3. Jurisdiction of the arbitral tribunal and the principle of lis pendens	139
H. Complex arbitration	139
I. Comparative overview	139
1. Multi-party arbitration	139
2. Joinder	140
3. Consolidation	141
4. Group of contracts	142
II. Swiss Law	143

Chapter 3

The Arbitral Tribunal 145

A. Seat of the arbitral tribunal	147
I. Comparative overview	147
1. Definition of the seat of the arbitral tribunal	147
2. Legal consequences of the seat of arbitration	147
3. Designation of the seat of arbitration	149
4. Transfer of the seat of arbitration	149
II. Swiss law	150
1. Legal consequences of the seat of arbitration	150
a) The seat determines the lex arbitri	150
b) The seat of arbitration and state court assistance	150
c) The seat defines the jurisdiction of local state courts to review the award	151
d) The seat determines the “nationality” of the arbitral award	151
2. Designation of the seat of arbitration	151
a) Designation of the seat by the parties	151
b) Designation of the seat by an arbitral institution or by the arbitral tribunal	153
aa) General comments	153
bb) Designation of the seat by an arbitral institution	154
cc) Designation of the seat by the arbitral tribunal	154
3. Transfer of the seat of the arbitral tribunal	155

B. Constitution of the arbitral tribunal	156
I. Comparative overview	156
1. Introductory comments	156
2. Number of arbitrators	156
3. Qualifications of arbitrator(s)	158
4. Impartiality and independence	159
a) Disclosure	160
b) IBA Guidelines on Conflicts of Interest	160
c) Violation of duty of impartiality and independence	163
5. Appointment of arbitrators	163
a) Appointing mechanism	163
b) Multi-party arbitration and the constitution of the arbitral tribunal	165
6. Administrative secretary	166
II. Swiss law	167
1. Number of arbitrators	167
2. Qualifications of arbitrator(s)	168
3. Impartiality and independence	168
a) Constitutional guarantee	168
b) Art. 180(1)(c) SPILA	169
c) Duty of disclosure and duty to investigate	169
d) Challenge/setting aside	170
e) Guidelines on conflicts of interest	170
f) Practice of the Swiss Supreme Court	170
4. Appointment of arbitrators	172
a) Autonomy of the parties to agree on the appointment of arbitrators	172
b) Appointment of arbitrators by an institution or a third person	173
c) Appointment of arbitrators by a state court	173
d) The right to appeal an appointment decision	176
aa) Cantonal level	176
bb) Federal level	176
cc) Appointment decisions issued by private institutions	177
5. Administrative secretary	177
C. Challenging an arbitrator	178
I. Comparative overview	178
1. Introductory comments	178
2. Grounds for challenge	179
3. Procedure	179
4. Limitations to the right to challenge an arbitrator	180
5. Replacement of the challenged arbitrator	181
II. Swiss law	181
1. Grounds for challenge	181
a) Art. 180(1)(a) and (b) SPILA	182
b) Art. 180(1)(c) SPILA	182

2. Procedure	182
3. Limitations to the right to challenge an arbitrator	184
4. Appeal against a challenge decision	185
D. Dismissal, removal, resignation and replacement of an arbitrator	187
I. Comparative overview	187
1. Introductory comments	187
2. Dismissal of an arbitrator	188
3. Removal of an arbitrator	188
4. Resignation of an arbitrator	189
5. Replacement of an arbitrator	190
a) Replacement procedure	190
b) Truncated arbitral tribunals	191
c) Consequences of a replacement	192
II. Swiss law	194
1. Dismissal of an arbitrator	194
2. Removal of an arbitrator	194
3. Resignation of an arbitrator	196
4. Replacement of an arbitrator	197
a) Replacement procedure	197
b) Suspension of the arbitral proceedings	197
c) Consequences of a replacement	198
E. Relationship between the arbitrators and the parties	199
I. Comparative overview	199
1. The arbitral contract	199
2. Obligations and rights of an arbitrator	200
a) The obligation to render an award	200
b) The obligation to complete the mandate	200
c) The obligations after rendering the award	201
d) The obligation to remain independent and impartial and the obligation to disclose possible conflicts of interest	201
e) The duty of confidentiality	202
f) The arbitrator's civil liability	202
g) The arbitrator's fees	203
3. Beginning and end of the legal relationship between the arbitrators and the parties	204
II. Swiss law	205
1. The arbitral contract	205
2. Obligations and rights of an arbitrator	206

Chapter 4

The Arbitral Procedure

207

A. Commencement of arbitration	209
I. Comparative overview	209
1. Introductory comments	209
2. Legal consequences of the commencement of arbitral proceedings	209
3. Date of commencement	210
4. Initiating documents	211
II. Swiss law	212
1. Pendency of the arbitration proceedings	212
a) Arbitrators named in the arbitration agreement	213
b) Arbitrators not named in the arbitration agreement	213
c) Exact date of the pendency of the arbitration	214
2. Legal consequences of the pendency of the arbitral proceedings	215
a) Inadmissibility of other proceedings	215
b) Compliance with time limits under Swiss law	215
B. Determining the arbitral procedure	216
I. Comparative overview	216
1. The parties' freedom to agree on the procedure	216
2. The arbitral tribunal's power to determine the procedure in the absence of an agreement by the parties	218
3. Limitations to the procedure adopted: compliance with the parties' right to equal treatment and right to be heard	219
a) General comments	219
b) Right to equal treatment	220
c) Right to be heard	220
II. Swiss law	221
1. The parties' freedom to agree on the procedure	221
2. The arbitral tribunal's power to determine the procedure in the absence of an agreement of the parties	222
3. Limitations to the procedure adopted: compliance with the parties' right to be heard and their right to equal treatment	222
a) Right to be heard	223
b) Right to equal treatment	224
C. Organization of the arbitral procedure	225
I. Comparative overview	225
1. Procedural rules established by the arbitral tribunal	225
2. Timing	225
3. Preliminary meetings and case management conference	226
4. Content of the procedural rules	227
5. Form of procedural rules	228

6. Terms of reference and terms of appointment	229
7. Language of the arbitration	230
8. Representation of the parties	230
9. Deposit of costs	232
10. Procedural timetable	233
11. Multitude of approaches	233
II. Swiss law	234
1. Procedural rules established by the arbitral tribunal	234
2. Selected issues	234
D. Written submissions	235
I. Comparative overview	235
1. Introductory comments	235
2. Exchange of written submissions	235
3. Content of written submissions	236
II. Swiss law	237
E. Taking of evidence	237
I. Comparative overview	237
1. Introductory comments	237
2. Determination of the rules relating to the taking of evidence	238
3. Admissibility and probative value	239
4. The burden of proof	240
5. Evidentiary means	241
a) Production of documents	241
b) Witness testimony	244
c) Expert witness testimony	247
aa) Party-appointed experts	247
bb) Tribunal-appointed experts	248
d) Inspection	249
6. Assistance of state courts in relation to the taking of evidence	249
II. Swiss law	251
1. Introductory comments	251
2. Admissibility and probative value	252
3. Burden of proof	253
4. Evidentiary means	253
a) Witness testimony	253
b) Expert witness testimony	254
5. Assistance of the “juge d’appui”	254
F. Hearings	256
I. Comparative overview	256
1. Introductory comments	256
2. Organization of hearings	256

3. Ex parte hearings	258
4. Procedure after the hearing	258
II. Swiss law	259
G. Interim measures	259
I. Comparative overview	259
1. Introductory comments	259
2. Jurisdiction of the arbitral tribunal to order interim measures	259
3. Jurisdiction of the state courts to order interim measures	261
4. Relationship between the state court's jurisdiction and the jurisdiction of the arbitral tribunal	262
5. Conditions for ordering interim measures	264
a) General comments	264
b) Ex parte measures	266
6. Content of interim measures	267
7. Form of orders for interim measures	269
8. Recognition and enforcement of interim measures ordered by arbitral tribunals	270
a) Penalties for non-compliance with interim measures ordered by the arbitral tribunal	270
b) Enforcement of interim measures by state courts or with the assistance of state courts	271
9. Liability for unjustified measures	272
10. Emergency arbitrator	273
II. Swiss law	275
1. Jurisdiction of the arbitral tribunal to order interim measures	275
2. Jurisdiction of the state courts to order interim measures	276
a) Concurrent jurisdiction	276
b) The risk of conflicts and the prohibition of using parallel jurisdiction in the absence of any change in the circumstances	277
3. Conditions for obtaining interim measures from an arbitral tribunal	277
4. Content of interim measures	279
5. Recognition and enforcement of interim measures ordered by arbitral tribunals	280
a) General comments	280
b) Penalties for non-compliance with interim measures ordered by the arbitral tribunal	280
c) State court assistance pursuant to Art. 183(2) SPILA	281
d) Other issues concerning the enforcement of decisions on interim measures	283
aa) Interim measures ordered by an arbitral tribunal	283
bb) Interim measures ordered by state courts	284
6. Emergency arbitrator	285

H. State court support for arbitration proceedings	286
I. Comparative overview	286
II. Swiss law	287

Chapter 5

Conditions of Admissibility	289
A. Introductory comments	291
B. (Positive) conditions of admissibility	292
I. Valid arbitration agreement	292
II. Legal interest worthy of protection	292
1. Introductory comments	292
2. Comparative overview	292
3. Swiss law	293
III. Arbitrability ratione materiae	294
1. Introductory comments	294
2. Comparative overview	294
3. Swiss law	295
IV. Capacity of the parties to initiate and conduct arbitral proceedings	297
1. Introductory comments	297
2. Comparative overview	298
3. Swiss law	299
a) Different aspects of capacity	299
b) Capacity to initiate and conduct arbitration proceedings	299
V. Proper constitution of the arbitral tribunal	301
1. Comparative overview	301
2. Swiss law	302
VI. Payment of advance on costs	302
1. Introductory comments	302
2. Comparative overview	302
3. Swiss law	303
VII. Meeting of time limits regarding the mandate of arbitrators and cooling-off periods	305
1. Introductory comments	305
2. Comparative overview	305
a) Time limits regarding mandate of the arbitral tribunal	305
b) Cooling-off periods	306
3. Swiss law	306
a) Time limits regarding mandate of the arbitral tribunal	306
b) Cooling-off periods	307

VIII. Expert determination or pre-arbitral dispute adjudication boards as a prerequisite for arbitration	307
1. Comparative overview	307
2. Swiss law	308
C. Negative conditions of admissibility	308
I. Res judicata	308
1. Introductory comments	308
2. Comparative overview	310
a) Applicable law	310
b) Recognition (or enforceability) of the prior decision	313
c) Identity of the dispute	313
3. Swiss law	315
a) Introductory comments	315
b) Applicable law	316
c) Types of awards with res judicata effects	316
d) Scope and limits of the effect of res judicata	317
e) Awards rendered in Switzerland	318
f) Prerequisites for the res judicata effect of a foreign judgment or award	318
aa) Recognition or enforceability of the prior decision	318
bb) Identity of the dispute	320
II. Lis pendens	322
1. Introductory comments	322
2. Comparative overview	323
a) Lis pendens between state courts and arbitral tribunals and vice versa	323
b) Lis pendens between arbitral tribunals	324
c) Lis pendens with regard to interim or provisional measures	325
3. Swiss Law	326
a) Overview of the situation in Switzerland	326
b) State court proceedings commenced prior to arbitration	326
c) Arbitration commenced prior to the commencement of another arbitration	329
III. Insolvency of a party	330
1. Introductory comments	330
2. Comparative overview	331
3. Swiss law	332
IV. Anti-arbitration injunctions	334
1. Introductory comments	334
2. Comparative overview	334
3. Swiss law	335

Chapter 6

The Law Applicable to the Merits of the Case

	337
A. Choice of law by the parties	339
I. Comparative overview	339
1. Introductory comments	339
2. Application of the conflict of laws rule of the lex arbitri	339
3. Party autonomy as the most prominent and widely accepted international conflict of laws rule	339
4. Choice of a national law	341
5. Choice of non-national rules of law as governing law	344
6. Timing of the choice of law by the parties	346
7. Limitations on party autonomy regarding choice of law	347
a) “Lois de police” or “lois d’application immédiate”	347
b) International public policy	348
II. Swiss law	349
1. Introductory comments	349
2. Party autonomy	349
a) General comments	349
b) Limitations on party autonomy regarding choice of law	351
B. Determination of the applicable law by the arbitrators	355
I. Comparative overview	355
1. Arbitrators choose the conflict of laws rules they deem appropriate	355
2. Specific conflict of laws rule provided for by the lex arbitri itself	357
3. “Voie directe”	357
4. National law or non-national rules?	358
II. Swiss law	358
1. Art. 187(1) SPILA	358
2. The closest-connection test	359
C. Proof of the applicable law	360
I. Comparative overview	360
II. Swiss law	360
D. Arbitration ex aequo et bono and “amiable compositeur”	362
I. Comparative overview	362
1. Arbitration ex aequo et bono	362
2. “Amiable compositeur”	362
II. Swiss law	363
E. Sanctions for violation of the rules regarding the applicable law	364
I. Comparative overview	364
II. Swiss law	364

Chapter 7
The Award	365
A. Types of awards	367
I. Comparative overview	367
1. Introductory comments	367
2. Distinction between interim or preliminary awards and procedural orders	367
3. Types of awards	368
a) Final award	368
b) Partial award	368
c) Interim or preliminary award	369
d) Default award	369
e) Award on agreed terms (consent award)	370
f) Additional award	371
II. Swiss law	371
1. Final award	371
2. Partial award	371
3. Interim or preliminary award	372
4. Default award	372
5. Additional award	373
B. Making of an award	373
I. Comparative overview	373
1. The arbitrators' deliberations	373
a) Introductory comments	373
b) Form of the deliberations	374
c) Confidentiality of the deliberations and voting	374
2. Voting: unanimous or majority decisions	375
3. Failure or refusal of an arbitrator to participate in the deliberations and/or voting	375
4. Time limits for the making of an award	376
5. Dissenting and concurring opinions	377
II. Swiss law	378
1. Party autonomy	378
2. The arbitrators' deliberations	378
a) Introductory comments	378
b) Form of the deliberations	379
c) Confidentiality of the deliberations and voting	379
3. Voting: unanimous or majority decisions	379
4. Failure or refusal of an arbitrator to participate in the deliberations and/or voting	380
5. Time limit for rendering the award	380

6. Dissenting opinions	381
7. Deposit of the award and certification by the arbitral tribunal	381
C. Form, content and notification of the award	382
I. Comparative overview	382
1. Written form requirement	382
2. Typical elements of the award	382
a) Introductory comments	382
b) Signature	383
c) Place and date	383
d) Reasoning	384
3. Notification of the award	385
II. Swiss law	385
1. Written form requirement	385
2. Typical elements of the award	386
a) Signature	386
b) Date of the award	386
c) Reasoning	386
3. Notification of the award	388
D. Correction and interpretation of the award and rendering of an additional award	389
I. Comparative overview	389
1. Introductory comments	389
2. Correction	389
3. Interpretation	390
4. Additional awards	390
II. Swiss law	391
1. Introductory comments	391
2. Correction and interpretation	391
E. Confidentiality and publication of awards	392
I. Comparative overview	392
II. Swiss law	393
F. Challenging an award	394
I. Comparative overview	394
1. Introductory comments	394
2. Jurisdiction of the state court at the seat of arbitration	394
3. Time limits	394
4. Decisions which can be challenged	395
5. Grounds for challenge	395
6. Effects of a successful challenge	396

7.	Exclusion and waiver of the right to challenge	397
a)	Exclusion	397
b)	Waiver	397
II.	Swiss law	399
1.	Jurisdiction of the Swiss Supreme Court	399
2.	Time limit under Swiss law	399
3.	General requirements of an application to challenge	400
4.	Effect of challenge on enforceability	401
5.	Decisions that can be challenged	402
6.	Effects of a challenge	403
a)	Successful challenge	403
b)	Unsuccessful challenge	405
7.	Grounds for challenge pursuant to Art. 190(2) SPILA	405
a)	Introductory comments	405
b)	Irregular constitution of the arbitral tribunal (Art. 190(2)(a) SPILA)	406
c)	Wrong ruling on jurisdiction (Art. 190(2)(b) SPILA)	409
d)	Ultra, infra or extra petita (Art. 190(2)(c) SPILA)	410
e)	Violation of right to be heard and equal treatment (Art. 190(2)(d) SPILA)	411
aa)	Right to be heard	411
bb)	Right to equal treatment	415
f)	Violation of public policy (Art. 190(2)(e) SPILA)	416
aa)	Substantive public policy	417
bb)	Procedural public policy	419
8.	Likelihood of success	420
9.	Exclusion of the right to challenge pursuant to Art. 192 SPILA	421
a)	Introductory comments	421
b)	Requirements of a valid exclusion	421
c)	Effects of a valid exclusion	423
G.	Revision of the award	425
I.	Comparative overview	425
II.	Swiss law	425
1.	Grounds for revision	425
2.	Competent authority	427
3.	Revisable decisions	428
4.	Time limits	428
5.	Formal requirements relating to the application for revision	429
6.	Consequences of a successful revision	430

Chapter 8

Recognition and Enforcement of Arbitral Awards

	431
A. Introduction	433
B. The New York Convention of 1958	434
I. Scope of application of the New York Convention	434
II. Formal requirements	436
III. Grounds for refusing recognition and enforcement under the New York Convention	437
1. Introductory comments	437
2. Grounds which must be invoked by a party	438
a) Art. V(1)(a) New York Convention: incapacity and invalidity of the arbitration agreement	438
aa) Incapacity of a party to the arbitration agreement	439
bb) Formal and substantive invalidity	439
cc) Subject matter arbitrability	440
b) Art. V(1)(b) New York Convention: Violation of due process	440
c) Art. V(1)(c) New York Convention: award dealing with a difference not contemplated or not within the scope of the arbitration agreement	442
d) Art. V(1)(d) New York Convention: arbitral tribunal not properly constituted or arbitral procedure not in accordance with the arbitration agreement	443
e) Art. V(1)(e) New York Convention: award not yet binding, set aside or suspended	443
3. Grounds which the state court considers on its own motion	446
a) Introductory comments	446
b) Art. V(2)(a) New York Convention: lack of subject matter arbitrability	446
c) Art. V(2)(b) New York Convention: violation of public policy	447
C. Recognition and enforcement of arbitral awards in Switzerland	448
I. Introductory comments	448
1. Foreign awards	448
2. Swiss awards	450
II. Recognition and enforcement of foreign arbitral awards	450
1. Application of New York Convention	450
a) Application in general	450
b) Particularities of Swiss law and Swiss case law	451
2. Discrepancies between the grounds for setting aside under the SPILA and the grounds for refusal of recognition under the New York Convention	455
3. Formal requirements	456

4. Enforcement of foreign monetary arbitral awards	456
5. Enforcement of foreign non-monetary arbitral awards	458
III. Recognition and enforcement of Swiss arbitral awards	459
1. Certificate of enforceability	459
2. Monetary arbitral awards	460
3. Non-monetary arbitral awards	461

Chapter 9

Treaty-based Investment Arbitration

A. Introduction	465
I. General purpose of investment treaties	465
II. Definition and main characteristics	465
B. Background and development	466
I. Good offices, diplomatic protection and international disputes	466
II. Investment treaties	467
III. Arbitration under the Convention on the Settlement of Investment Disputes between States and Nationals of Other States (ICSID Convention)	468
IV. Influence of civil society	468
V. Treaty-based investment arbitration and Switzerland	469
C. Arbitration clause and jurisdiction	469
I. Definition, purpose and form	469
II. Validity, form and standard of interpretation and sources of international law	470
III. Consent to refer the dispute to arbitration (essentialia negotii 1)	471
IV. Designation of the legal relationship (essentialia negotii 2)	472
1. Treaty breaches by the host state	472
2. Disputes in connection with investments	472
3. Standards of protection	474
4. Disputes under an umbrella clause	475
V. Additional requirements for an arbitral tribunal's jurisdiction	476
VI. Subject matter covered by the parties' consent	476
VII. Particularities of Swiss law	477
D. Arbitral tribunal	477
I. The constitution of the arbitral tribunal	477
1. General comments	477
2. In ICSID arbitration	478

II.	Designation of the seat	478
1.	Determination in accordance with the applicable rules	479
2.	Seat in a New York Convention member state	479
3.	Seat in arbitrations under the ICSID Convention	479
E.	Arbitral procedure	480
I.	Introductory comments	480
II.	Confidentiality and transparency	480
1.	Basic principles	480
2.	Access to information	481
III.	Third-party submissions	482
F.	Applicable law	483
I.	Introduction	483
II.	Choice of law by the parties	483
III.	Choice of law in the absence of the parties' agreement	483
G.	The arbitral award	484
I.	Annulment of the award	484
II.	Recognition and enforcement of investment awards	485

Chapter 10

Sports Arbitration

		487
A.	Introduction	489
I.	Characteristics	489
II.	Background	489
III.	The importance of Switzerland in sports arbitration	490
IV.	The role of the EU and the case law of the European Court of Justice in the development of sports law	491
V.	Sports-related disputes	492
VI.	Arbitration in sport	493
1.	Sport dispute resolution organizations	493
2.	Internal dispute resolution of sport organizations	494
a)	The need for internal mechanisms	494
b)	Special internal dispute mechanisms	495
B.	The Court of Arbitration for Sport	496
I.	Background	496
II.	Organization	497
III.	CAS sports case law	498
IV.	The CAS Code	499
1.	Overview of the CAS Code	499

2. Agreement to arbitrate	500
a) Application of the CAS Code	500
b) Consent	502
c) Separability	503
d) Competence-competence	503
3. Arbitral tribunal	503
a) Seat	503
b) Constitution	504
aa) Formation of the Panel	504
bb) Challenge	505
c) Independence and impartiality	505
4. Arbitral procedure	507
a) Ordinary arbitration	507
b) Appeals arbitration	508
aa) Direct reference to the CAS	508
bb) Appeal against a decision	508
cc) Exhaustion of internal remedies	509
dd) Statement of appeal	509
ee) Time limits	510
ff) Other procedural issues	510
c) Standing in CAS appeals	511
d) Scope of review	512
e) Hearings	512
5. Costs	512
6. Law applicable to the merits	513
a) Choice of applicable law	513
b) Evidence	513
7. The arbitral award	514
V. Setting aside	514
1. Admissibility	515
2. Grounds for setting aside an award	517
a) Improper constitution	517
b) Wrong acceptance or denial of jurisdiction	518
c) Decision beyond claims submitted or failure to decide	519
d) Violation of equal treatment/right to be heard	519
aa) Equal treatment	519
bb) Right to be heard	519
e) Public policy	520
3. Revision	521
VI. Enforcement	522
Table of Cases	523
Index	539