

How Basel changed the world

By Matthias Buschle and Daniel Hagmann

Christoph Merian Verlag

Table of Contents

p. 9	p. 28
Introduction	Freidorf and Bauhaus.
p. 13	Global architecture on Basel foundations
“Sugar ... spinach ... haemoglobin.”
The measurements of Gustav von Bunge	p. 34
p. 20	Ice-skaters, Idioms, Slang and Erasmus of Rotterdam “This is such stuff as dreams are made of.”
The discovery of LSD

p. 39

The Art of Art Dealing.
Art Basel

p. 44

The Bells of Basel.
The modern woman
and world peace

p. 50

Excuse me, but
where is Basel III?
The city and the Bank for International Settlements

p. 55

A "painting
to dream about".
Die Toteninsel

p. 60

Love of Animals,
Bone Screws,
IPOs.
The boom in accident surgery

p. 65

Cortisone and Vitamin C.
Tadeus Reichstein,
a master of the
tiniest substances

p. 71

A Bitter-Sweet
Success Story.
The missions,
slave liberation
and the cocoa trade

p. 77

Habent sua
fata libelli.
The Civilizing
Process

p. 82

A Bad Leg.
Paracelsus and the reform of modern medicine

p. 90
Romantic Matriarchy.
Johann Jakob
Bachofen
and mother right

p. 96
The Stumbling Block.
The origins
of global nature conservation

p. 103
Poison for the World.
Dichlorodiphenyl-trichloroethane becomes DDT

p. 108
A Song for Peace.
Mediating between revolution
and monarchy
in Basel

p. 114
SPQB
instead of SPQR.
Conclave and papal coronation
in Basel

p. 121
Nietzsche's
First Book.
The tragedy at the birth of his philosophy

p. 129
Explosive!
Christian Friedrich
Schönbein
and guncotton

p. 134
A Clash of Cultures.
The commotion caused by the first printing
of the Koran

p. 141
New Early Music.
The Schola
Cantorum Basiliensis
and Paul Sacher

p. 148
“In Basel I founded
the Jewish State.” The Zionist Congress
in Basel

p. 154
A Typeface
travels the World.
How the Haas Grotesk
became Helvetica

p. 160
The Bernoulli
Century.
Eight representatives of one family
influence
the world.

p. 164
Russian Reverse.
Yet another change

p. 173
Thanks

p. 175
Imprint