

Sigurd
Lewerentz, architect

1885–1975

JANNE AHLIN

BYGGFÖRLAGET
Stockholm, Sweden

Portrait 8

Wanderjahren 14

Berlin, Munich and the Deutscher Werkbund

The Firm of Lewerentz & Stubelius 18

A Profession in the Midst of Change The Movement for Home Ownership Housing for Mining Workers Housing Commissions from Factories Workers' Housing in Helsingborg Villa for the Engineer Ahxner

Between Life and Death 33

The Dispute over a Tomb The Crematory Chapel in Helsingborg

Landscape as Architecture 38

The Competition for a Forest Cemetery The Gradual Realization The Classicizing A Walk through the Proposal

Provincial Cemeteries 50

A Cemetery in the Open Landscape A Catafalque by a Cairn An Unearthed Church Tower A Small Churchyard Cemeteries in Stora Tuna and Kvarnsveden

The Workshop Society 66

The Young Architects Appear The Gothenburg Exhibition of 1923 Exhibit for the Cremation Society of Sweden

Reality as Drawing 71

The Chapel of the Resurrection in the Woodland Cemetery The Proposal for a Crematorium for the Eastern Cemetery in Malmö

The Stockholm Exhibition of 1930 88

Illuminated Advertisements of Stockholm, Inc., and BLOKK, Inc. A Symbol for the Stockholm Exhibition The Posters The Housing Exhibition The Boat

Projects of the Early Thirties 100

The Chapel in Enköping Building for the Social Security Administration Philips, Inc., of Sweden The Mills at Marma and Skoghäll An Urban Plan for Lower Norrmalm, Stockholm

The Chapel of the Holy Cross 116

Projects of the Late Thirties 119

A Summer House in Falsterbo

The Theater in Malmö 124

Lewerentz' First Proposal Lewerentz' Second Proposal A Tenuous Design Collaboration The Chapels of St. Knut and St. Gertrude

His Own Manufacturer 138

Uppsala Cathedral and Environs 142

The City Hall Uppsala Cathedral

The Church at the Bottom of the Lake 149

St. Mark's Church in Björkhagen

Speculations Concerning the Parliament Building 162

With Light as a Building Block 165

The Petri Church in Klippan

The Final Project 175

The Eastern Cemetery in Malmö

The Epiphany of the Bindweed 178

CURRICULUM VITAE 184

INDEX 192