

Agata Zysiak, Kamil Śmiechowski, Kamil Piskała
Wiktor Marzec, Kaja Kaźmierska, Jacek Burski

FROM COTTON AND SMOKE

Łódź – Industrial City and Discourses of Asynchronous Modernity
1897–1994

TABLE OF CONTENTS

| | |
|---|------------|
| Acknowledgments | 9 |
| List of Tables | 11 |
| List of Illustrations | 13 |
| Introduction | 17 |
| There Is a City in Europe | 19 |
| Translocal Modernity | 21 |
| Printed Modernity | 24 |
| Journey Through a Century | 27 |
| The Structure and Content of the Modern Discourse | 31 |
| The Beginnings: Entrance to the Industrial World 1897–1914 | 37 |
| The Promised Land in the Mud | 37 |
| From Othering to Condemnation | 45 |
| Re-imagining the City | 52 |
| Harmonious Modernity and Urban Self-assertion | 56 |
| The Dream of a Proper Infrastructure | 62 |
| Calling for Institutions | 66 |
| Inventing Welfare | 73 |
| Educating the Masses | 82 |
| Envisioning Urban Citizenship | 84 |
| Ethnicizing the Economy | 88 |
| Forging Modernity – Conclusion | 98 |
| The Interwar: Democratic Politics and Modern City Between Two World Wars 1918–1923 | 101 |
| The Decline of the “Polish Manchester” | 101 |
| The Years of War: the Economic Collapse and Political Liberalization | 102 |
| Democratic Politics and the Press in the Independent State | 106 |
| From Class Warfare to the Modernization Program | 110 |
| Visions of a Metropolis and Municipal Socialism | 118 |

| | |
|--|------------|
| Rhetorical Shifts | 121 |
| Against the “Philosophy of the Crowd” | 128 |
| National Capitalism..... | 132 |
| Antisemitism as Social Critique..... | 135 |
| From Antisemitism to Political Mobilization..... | 145 |
| Class or Nation? | 149 |
| The Crisis of Modernization and European Civil War – Conclusion | 153 |
| The Postwar: Social Justice for the Proletarian City? 1945–1949 | 161 |
| New Reality | 161 |
| New Worldwide Order..... | 162 |
| Postwar Cinderella..... | 165 |
| New Scope of Press Influence..... | 170 |
| Tempting Visions in Hard Times..... | 176 |
| Rhetoric of Appeasement | 180 |
| Patterns of Legitimization: Dark Past and Bright Future..... | 184 |
| Working Classes and Everyday Life..... | 187 |
| Toward a Functionalist City | 192 |
| Osiedle and beyond..... | 195 |
| Planning | 200 |
| Metropolitan Dreams and a Wake-up Call | 206 |
| From Modest Modernization to a Socialist City – Conclusion..... | 212 |
| Transition: The Post-industrial Orphan in Neoliberal Poland 1989–1994.. | 217 |
| Re-inventing the City | 217 |
| The Socialist-Style American Dream | 219 |
| Shock and Helplessness | 227 |
| New Press and New Politics | 232 |
| The Market as a Principle of Social Organization | 239 |
| City in Crisis | 242 |
| Projects of Breaking Through | 246 |
| Bringing Capitalism back in – Conclusion | 253 |
| A City Lost in Space in a Country Lost in Time – Conclusion | 257 |
| Struggling with the Modern Challenge | 257 |
| City from Cotton and Smoke | 261 |
| The Press is Back in Town | 264 |
| Narratives of Modernity..... | 266 |
| Methodological Appendix..... | 271 |

Table of contents

7

| | |
|------------------------------|-----|
| Primary Sources Covered..... | 275 |
| Reference List | 277 |
| Index of Names | 299 |
| List of Contributors..... | 307 |