

82

Publications de l'Institut suisse de droit comparé
Veröffentlichungen des Schweizerischen Instituts für Rechtsvergleichung
Pubblicazioni dell'Istituto svizzero di diritto comparato
Publications of the Swiss Institute of Comparative Law

Collection dirigée par Christina Schmid et Lukas Heckendorn Urscheler

Samantha Besson / Lukas Heckendorn Urscheler /
Samuel Jubé (eds)

Comparing Comparative Law

UNI
FR
■
UNIVERSITÉ DE FRIBOURG
UNIVERSITÄT FREIBURG

Schulthess § 2017
ÉDITIONS ROMANDES

Table of Contents

Preface..... 7
Samantha Besson/Lukas Heckendorn Urscheler/Samuel Jubé

Introduction..... 9
Samantha Besson/Lukas Heckendorn Urscheler/Samuel Jubé

Part I

What Is and Should Be Compared When Comparing Law?

Rats in Retrospect 19
William Ewald

The Objects of Comparison in the Comparative Study of Constitutional Law 35
Yuzuru Shimada

Part II

What Does and Should Comparing (Law) Mean?

What Does It Mean to “Compare”, and What Should It Mean?..... 61
Christopher McCrudden

Comparing Laws for Better Lawmaking:
 Serving the Comparative Legal Research Needs of the Federal Government..... 85
Peter Roudik

Comparativistics: The Experience of Modern Russia..... 99
Taliya Khabrieva & Yuriy Tikhomirov

Part III

How Does and Should One Compare Law?

How Do and Should We Compare Constitutional Law? 109
Stephen Gardbaum

The French Conseil d’Etat and Comparative Law:
 The Construction of an Identity..... 127
Timothée Paris

How Does and Should One Compare Law?..... 137
Roberto Fragale Filho

TABLE OF CONTENTS

How Does and Should One Compare Law?..... 145
Salvatore Mancuso

Part IV

Comparing the Un-Comparable in Law – A Curse?

Comparing the Un-Comparable in Law - A Curse? 159
Constance Grewe

How to Engage in Legal Comparison. A Reaction 163
Franz Werro

Comparative Law in Modern China’s Legal Development 181
Bin Li

Legal History & Comparative Law 187
Alain Wijffels

Conclusion

Comparative Law between Globalisation and Mondialisation..... 209
Alain Supiot

List of Authors..... 219